In search of natural treasure - from curious caves to conical hilltops

The South China Sea is the setting for this cruise from Singapore to Manila. After two relaxing days on the ocean, our first port of call is the small town of Muara in the Sultanate of Brunei. We continue up the coast of north Borneo, heading to Malaysia's Kota Kinabalu, which reveals a thriving arts and music scene. Continuing north, we reach the Philippines at Palawan, calling in at Puerto Princesa, famous for its spectacular limestone caves and underground river, and Coron, a popular destination with divers. We continue onwards to Boracay island, renowned for its clear waters and palm-fringed beaches, before heading to spirited Manila, where we spend a night before disembarking.

MANILA → INCHEON (SEOUL)

Buddhist temples and gleaming towers: where old meets new

Explore the Philippines, China and South Korea, on an epic voyage departing Manila, a heady mix of past, present and future. First, we make a short hop north to Subic Bay, where there is sunken treasure to explore, before spending a relaxing day at sea sailing to the bright lights of Hong Kong. Two nights will leave you wanting more of this endlessly fascinating metropolis, but we are bound for Kaoshiung, the busiest harbor in Taiwan, Keelung, the gateway to the capital, Taipei, and the Japanese island of Ishigaki-jima, with its Buddhist temples. Our final ports of call are in South Korea - the island of Jeju and the city of Yeosu, which is renowned for its cuisine - before we disembark at Incheon near Seoul.

Hop around islands and hang out with orangutans

Casting off from Bali, we sail north along the Makassar Strait to Sandakan, gateway to picture-perfect beaches, turquoise seas, and a must-visit – the Sepilok Orangutan Rehabilitation Centre. Puerto Princesa in Palawan is the best place to start hopping around the Philippine’s emerald islands, as we make our way to the white sands of Boracay. Then we spend two days in buzzing Manila, Southeast Asia’s second-largest city. Get plenty of rest during the following day crossing the South China Sea because our last stop is Hong Kong, where you will stay overnight. That allows plenty of time to shop ‘til you drop, marvel at the futuristic skyline from the Pearl River, and get pleasantly lost among the city’s labyrinthine markets.

INCHEON (SEOUL) → TOKYO

Visit two great nations just in time for cherry blossom season

The time is just right to head for South Korea and Japan to see the hopelessly romantic scene of clouds of cherry blossom. Embarking at Incheon near Seoul, we spend a relaxing day at sea before reaching Busan, much loved by Koreans for its setting and magnificent temple of Beomeo-sa. Heading south to Japan, our next port of call is Fukuoka, renowned for its seafood. We sail on to Nagasaki, dramatically rebuilt after World War II, and then continue south to Kagoshima, across the bay from Sakurajima volcano. After calling in at Beppu, we reach Kochi, with its beach and well-preserved Shogun castle. Our final ports are Kobe and Nagoya before we finish the journey in dynamic Tokyo.

Where emerald waters lap against towering limestone cliffs

Leave behind Hong Kong for our first stop on this voyage around the South China Sea, ethereal Ha Long Bay, where the limestone cliffs and gem-colored waters create one of the world's most serene seascapes. Still in Vietnam, we call by Da Nang, gateway to the UNESCO-listed imperial city of Hue. Two days in the happy cacophony of Ho Chi Minh City follow, plenty of time to get under the skin of the place. Sail on past the tip of Vietnam's southern territory and Cambodia for an overnight in busy Bangkok, Thailand, where bright lights beckon and serene temples soothe. A short sail south takes us to Koh Samui for Thai boxing and tempting banquets. The final day at sea ends with an overnight in Singapore.

ROUNDTRIP TOKYO

Explore eastern lands in the shadow of Mount Fuji

Sail from Japan to Taiwan and back during cherry blossom season on a voyage that takes in some of Asia-Pacific's most fascinating destinations. Setting off from Tokyo, we sail to Shimizu, considered to be one of Japan's most beautiful ports because of its wonderful outlook on Mount Fuji. We continue west to Kobe, a word now associated with the best quality beef and a place renowned as a culinary hotspot - it's also a good base for visits to Kyoto. A quiet day at sea, relaxing onboard the ship, takes us to the coral-fringed Okinawa archipelago, then Taiwan, where we stop at Keelung, a gateway to Taipei. We return now to Japan, calling in at Kagoshima and Kochi before arriving back in Tokyo.

A journey filled with tales from the present and the past

Travel from Tokyo, the capital of Japan, to the city of Incheon in South Korea. First, we spend a relaxing day at sea enjoying all the facilities that our beautiful ship has to offer. We are heading west bound for Kobe, a name that has become synonymous with culinary excellence and a good place to strike out for the city of Kyoto. We continue to Kochi, the location of a Shogun castle, before sailing to Hiroshima to better understand its poignant history. Our next port of call is Moji, with its historic waterfront and fascinating museum of art. Heading north, we reach South Korea, a society that offers visitors ancient and modern delights, calling in at Yeosu and Jeju island before we disembark at Incheon near Seoul.

Take the close-up view, from city streets to sandy shores

Immerse yourself in Japan and dip your toe in South Korea on this spellbinding cruise. After embarking in Tokyo, our first port of call is Shimizu, where you will be captivated by the glorious view of Mount Fuji. Continuing west, we reach vibrant Osaka, for one of the country's most famous castles and its renowned street food - try the local specialty, kushikatsu, deep-fried skewers of meat or vegetables. Then we turn southwest to the white sands of the Okinawa archipelago. After a sea day, we visit South Korea's Jeju island and then turn east to the Japanese city Beppu, famous for its hot springs. Our final port of call is Kochi, with its Shogun castle, before we sail back to the capital, Tokyo.

TOKYO → INCHEON (SEOUL)

Modern art and ancient ruins – there are two sides to this story

Journey from Japan to South Korea, departing Tokyo, for Hakodate, to see its star-shaped castle ruins, and then Aomori, renowned for its fish markets and modern art gallery. Turning south, we continue to Sakata, with its traditional architecture and historic rice warehouses, and Niigata, cradled by rice fields. Onwards we go, calling in at Kanazawa to admire the beautiful garden of Kenrokuen, and Maizuru, which puts the city of Kyoto within reach. Our next port of call is Sakaiminato, from where we leave Japan and cross the Korea Strait to Busan, much loved by Koreans for its setting and magnificent temple of Beomeo-sa. After a final relaxing day at sea, we disembark at Incheon near Seoul.

Surprises and spectacles in one of the world's wildest corners

Our voyage begins in Aomori, the seaside city on the northern tip of Japan's Honsu island. Famous for its delicious apples and fresh seafood - try a selection of the latter with some rice, nokke-don, at the city's Furukawa Fish Market. Next, we visit Kushiro, on the east coast of Hokkaido, close to wetlands beloved by birds, including the red-crown crane, a national symbol of happiness and long life. Now we have some serious relaxing to do onboard ship as we sail across the ocean - and the International Date Line - on a voyage bound for Alaska. Our first stop is Kodiak Island, a wilderness patrolled by bears, wolves and moose, then the fishing port of Homer. Finally we reach Seward, to hike to the fjords and dine on fresh halibut.

Wave goodbye to Hollywood, we're bound for Honolulu

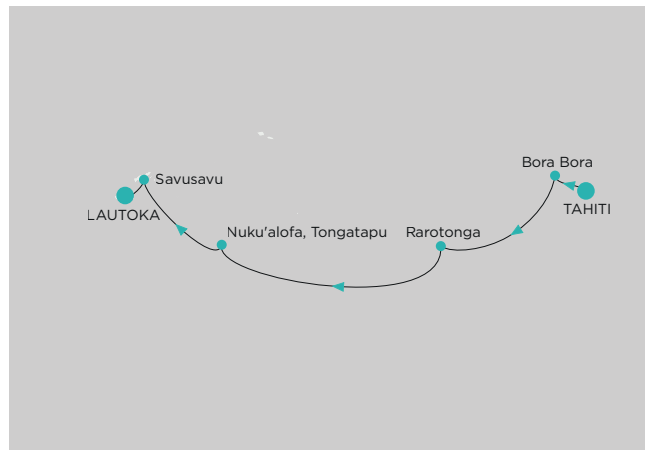

Restful sea days are interspersed with visits to exotic ports on the inaugural segment of our World Cruise 2026. Waving goodbye to the Hollywood Hills, we get in the spirit of life on the ocean as we spend five days enjoying all our beautiful ship has to offer on a journey across the South Pacific. For our first stop, we call by the sun-kissed shores of Kahului and Honolulu in Hawaii, before spending four more relaxing days at sea. An overnight stay in Nuka Hiva, the largest of the Marquesas Islands, delivers adventure, while verdant forests, roaring waterfalls, and idyllic beaches in Fakarava, Rangiroa, and Moorea offer an intoxicating taste of Polynesia. Our journey ends with an overnight stay in Papeete.

TAHITI (PAPEETE) → LAUTOKA

Fall in love with island life, South Pacific style

This South Pacific voyage will leave you swooning as we unveil the perfect picture of paradise, painted with soft-sand beaches, turquoise lagoons, and pearly-white atolls. At Bora Bora, hike up Mount Otemanu then reward your efforts with a cooling swim in the clear waters that lap its shores. At Rarotonga in the Cook Islands, between New Zealand and Hawaii, there is dazzling snorkeling. Next, we fast-forward 24 hours as we sail over the international dateline, a once-in-a-lifetime experience that surely deserves celebrating with a glass of fizz. Dive into warm seas in Tonga before we journey onwards to Fiji to see vibrant emerald rainforests and witness enthralling welcoming ceremonies in Savusavu and Lautoka before disembarking.

Pick out the pearls of Melanesia on a voyage across the ocean

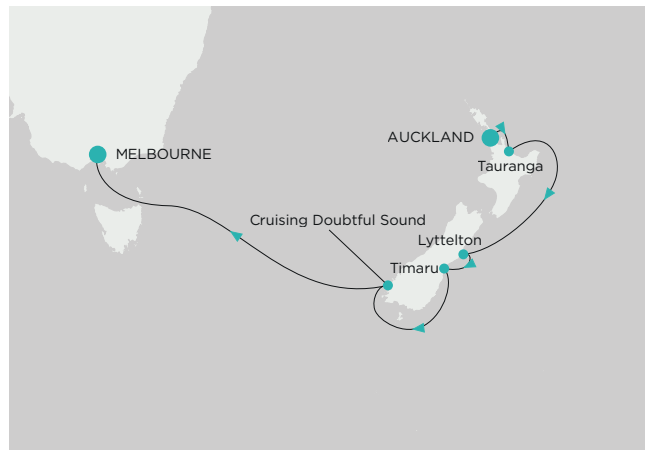

This glorious cruise departs from Fiji on a quest to discover the jewels of Melanesia. Raise your glass during a day sailing northwest across the ocean to Champagne Beach in Vanuatu, where we'll be welcomed with a traditional water music ceremony. The vibrant fusion of French and Kanak cultures waits to be explored in remote Lifou. Then we will just relax for the day at sea as we journey towards Norfolk Island, a tiny drop of Australian territory almost halfway between New Caledonia and New Zealand. Our final day is spent in New Zealand's waters, enjoying life onboard before exploring the stunning Bay of Islands. All too soon, it's time to disembark in the city of Auckland.

AUCKLAND → MELBOURNE

North and South – tour the highlights of New Zealand

Experience the beauty of New Zealand and South Australia on this captivating voyage. Casting off from Auckland, we sail along the North Island's east coast to Tauranga to enjoy the invigorating mix of traditional Maori and contemporary cultures. The South Island's Lyttelton, gateway to Christchurch, is next, followed by the soaring cliffs and wide skies of Timaru, where nature enthusiasts can hike in the hills and urbanites can enjoy a perfect coffee on the boardwalk. Awe-inspiring beauty is witnessed while cruising Dusky, Doubtful, and Milford Sounds. Then, two days sailing on the Tasman Sea offer opportunities to unwind and fully enjoy all our ship has to offer, before disembarking in Melbourne.
