MÉDOC VINEYARDS & BORDEAUX

BORDEAUX (LE VERDON), FRANCE

Experience the myriad gifts of the Bordeaux region during a visit to a Médoc vineyard. You'll journey by coach along the famed Médoc wine road, the Route des Châteaux, enjoying panoramic views of orderly and impeccably maintained vineyards as far as the eye can see. Relish a visit to one of the region's illustrious châteaux, where you'll learn about their age-old winemaking techniques and tour the cellars before trying two recent vintages. Head to Bordeaux, a UNESCO World Heritage site, for time to shop and explore. You might stroll to the WWII German submarine base and amble along the scenic Garonne riverfront, or delight in glorious sights including spectacular Place de la Bourse, the Grosse Cloche bell tower, the Gothic cathedral and the superlative Grand Theatre, considered one of the most beautiful 18th-century auditoriums in Europe. View the playful spires of the Cailhau Gate, stroll serene Gambetta Square and reflect on the architectural delights of unforgettable Bordeaux.
