Nature and man share these islands in delicious harmony. Rainforested peaks vault dramatically skyward, shimmering beaches receive the sea's kiss — and its pounding surf. Snorkel into a living aquarium in Turks & Caicos, dance to rhythmic soca in Barbados, mingle with celebs in Gustavia, and graze for culinary delights in colorful Fort-de-France.

This century-old engineering marvel lifts your Crystal ship some 85 feet above sea level as it traverses mountainous jungle through Gatun's massive locks — at times clearing by just inches. Unforgettable.

Ogle Napier’s art deco landmarks and massive Cape Kidnappers gannet colony. Sample the iconic wines of Marlborough in Picton. Warm up to the geysers of Rotorua and soak up the Lord of the Rings scenery of Wellington and Mount Victoria.

IN AND AROUND AUSTRALIA

Say “g’day” to the Wet Tropics of Queensland and the Great Barrier Reef, both UNESCO-listed and accessible from Cairns. Explore Airlie Beach and the Whitsunday Islands. Encounter Darwin’s river of jumping crocodiles on Australia’s “Top End” and hop over to Komodo Island, where the really scary dragons live. Savor organic olives and McLaren Vale wines in Adelaide and sky-high views from Melbourne’s Eureka Skydeck.

BALI, THE JAVA SEA & INDIA

Surrender to the mystique of Bali’s jungle-shrouded volcanoes, ancient temples and Hindu dancers. THE HAWAIIAN ISLES

These islands formed by dramatic volcanic activity appear tranquil, but a visit to the Big Island’s Volcanoes National Park confirms Kilauea’s ongoing restlessness. Over on the Kona Coast, vast fields of black lava are punctuated by lush green resorts. Waterfalls race down from Kauai’s emerald cliffs while arid Waimea Canyon looks more like something out of Arizona. On Maui, consider a spin on the spectacular Hana Road or visit the summit of ginormous, dormant Haleakala. Oahu offers up Pearl Harbor and iconic Waikiki Beach with Diamond Head at its tip.

SAMOA & THE KINGDOM OF TONGA

Perched scenically on Samoa’s Upolu island’s coast, Apia has been a favorite getaway of not only writer Robert Louis Stevenson but many a top Hollywood actor back in the day. Don’t look for swank resorts; think thatched-roof fale huts opening onto a verdant landscape and jagged mountains vaulting from deserted beaches where trade winds sigh among the coconuts. Yet that all seems downright frantic compared to the languid pace of life in Tonga — though the capital, Nuku’alofa, does have a bit of adrenaline about it.

OAHU, HAWAII, USA

Create your own magic on Hawaii's great "gathering place". Honolulu is the center of blissful island life with boundless sandy beaches, warm locals, and some of the most memorable landscapes in the world.

ARABIAN PENINSULA & the Holy Land

From ancient Athens to gleaming Abu Dhabi to the temples and Bollywood manses of Mumbai, from the Med to the Red to the Arabian Sea. These journeys trace the storied spice routes of old, traveling back to the earliest roots of civilization — and forward to modern cities marking their vault into the future. You'll visit landmarks sacred and secular, settlements grand and humble, landscapes lush and arid. You might swim with turtles in Oman, sip fresh-pressed olive oil in Crete, experience the morning light in Petra, or wander the souks of Dubai. What you won't do is spend even a minute underwhelmed.

THE WONDERS OF EGYPT & JORDAN

West of beachy Safage, a World Heritage nirvana awaits: the Temples of Luxor and Karnak and the desert tombs of Tutankhamun and Ramses II in the Valley of the Kings. Jordan's port city of Aqaba is known for its vibrant coral reefs and equally colorful neighbor: the ancient Rose City of Petra; carved into solid red mountain sandstone over 2,000 years ago, it remained hidden to modern eyes for centuries. Chiseled by nature for far longer, the desert landscape of Wadi Rum is yet another UNESCO treasure — and an excellent stand-in for Mars.

THE ARABIAN PENINSULA

Spend glamorous overnights in the Emirates, where Dubai and Abu Dhabi duel for whose skyline is loftier, whose shopping is more luxe, and whose traditional souks are more labyrinthine. In Doha, witness Qatar's astounding growth as a cultural and political nexus in the region. Spend a day on a Persian Gulf island of free-roaming giraffes, cheetahs and gazelles — and luxury hotels. In volcano-ringed Muscat, take in Oman's intriguing blend of Arab, Indian, African and European accents and its modern masterpieces of Islamic architecture.

GREEK ISLES, ITALY & THE ADRIATIC

Green, serene Corfu. Chic, swinging Mykonos. Whitewashed Santorini, sacred Patmos, ancient Rhodes. The islands circling Greece are simply unrivaled in their beauty. That said, Italy's stacked coastal towns and Renaissance riches demand their own superlatives. And wait, what of those Adriatic and Dalmatian Coast stunners — Dubrovnik, Split, Kotor et al? Let's call this a three-way tie.

PORTS OF THE BLACK SEA

Europe and Asia meet here, their faiths and traditions intermingling for millennia. Istanbul's cultural mosaic dazzles like those in its Hagia Sophia and Blue Mosque. Nessebar's cobbled old town is a UNESCO gem. In Constanța, thrill to minaret-top views from the Great Mosque, while in Odessa it's the great Potemkin Steps you'll want to ascend.

THE IBERIAN PENINSULA

Spain's shores offer all manner of enticement, from Barcelona's beaches and Gaudí showplaces to Valencia's UNESCO-cited Silk Exchange, Málaga's artistic mélange, domed Cádiz, and modern Bilbao. Portugal adds to the attractions with cosmopolitan Lisbon, the ochre sea cliffs of Portimão, and the hill-hugging wine lodges of Porto.

MARINA DI CARRARA, ITALY

Celebrated as the world's marble capital, it is from Carrara that Michelangelo gleaned a single block of the white stone for his David. Contrasting the stunning white mountainside slopes, the city itself is home to colorful buildings and the Romanesque St. Andrew's Cathedral, covered entirely in marble. From here you can journey to Tuscany, to savor its extraordinary wines and stroll the Renaissance walls encircling the charming city of Lucca, birthplace of the great operatic composer Puccini.

NORTH AMERICA & CANADA

the majesty of the north

Separated by a continent, North America's two coasts are opposite ends of a marvelous spectrum, each steeped in history and alive with natural riches. A summertime journey between Los Angeles and Vancouver provides a spectacular vantage point on the entire Golden West, while the coming of Fall paints the leafy Eastern Seaboard in its own color palette. To the south, the charm of Charleston and character of Key West await. Farther to the north, Canada's coastal provinces combine a wild maritime landscape with delicious French-Canadian style — and cuisine to match.

NEW ENGLAND & THE MARITIME PROVINCES

Blend New York's dazzling towers with the Gilded Age "cottages" of Newport, the craggy coastal trails of Acadia, Boston's colonial landmarks, and the sweeping dunes and cape light of Provincetown. Add the irresistible French accent of Québec's Old Town and sexy joie de vivre of Montréal. Last, stir in destinations along the whale-happy Gulf of St. Lawrence and tidally hyperactive Bay of Fundy linking Nova Scotia, New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island. Toss gently, settle on your favorite itinerary, and savor the perfect journey.

THE PACIFIC COAST

California's seaboard encompasses some 900 miles of tawny cliffs and towering redwoods, surfable beaches and secluded coves — a magnificent parade of nature interrupted by cities small and large. Monterey's a haven for cetaceans, Santa Barbara's a playground for sophisticates, and San Francisco is all about hills, social trends and access to Napa's nearby elixirs. Astoria, Seattle, Victoria and Vancouver each add to their scenery and ethnic diversity to the milieu.

ALASKA

wild & untamed beauty

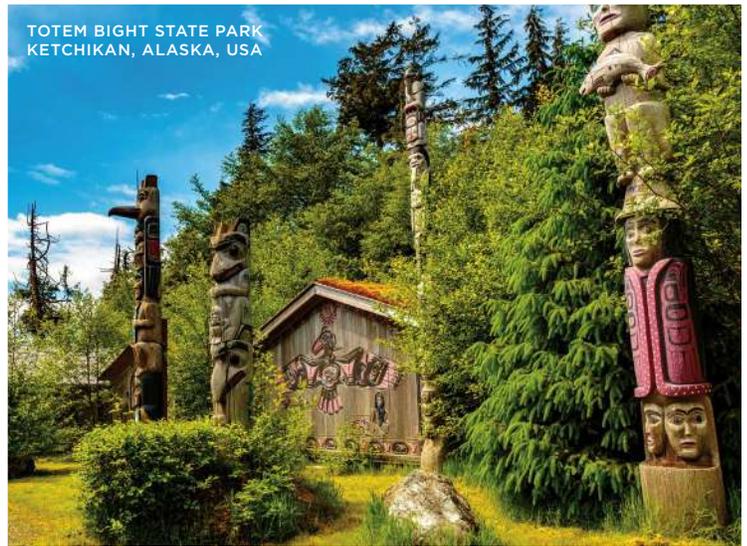

Enter one of Earth's most unspoiled realms, where snowcapped mountains and bald eagles soar skyward and extraordinary adventures form the daily routine. Travel the Inside Passage, a place of glacial valleys and cedar forests, dramatic fjords and luminous seas. Visit towns deeply tied to the Klondike era, others with onion-domed reminders from when Russia reigned. Contemplate native Alaskan totems and the ancient ice of Hubbard Glacier. Above all, experience a place where civilization's gains represent merely a toehold in the face of an unimaginably vast natural landscape.

AN ADVENTURER'S PLAYGROUND

Alaska may be famous for its wide-open spaces, but there's no shortage of things to do and see within them. Some examples: kayaking and sport fishing in Ketchikan, salmon capital of the world; helicopter flightseeing over Glacier Bay; Klondike rock climbing, dog sledding or a spin on the narrow-gauge White Pass Scenic Railway in Skagway. Then there's "Shooting the Mendenhall" in Juneau — rafting the whitewater that rushes down from this massive glacier's icefield. Or zip-lining through the canopy atop Mt. Roberts. Or maybe even some impromptu axe throwing.

...AND A SIGHTSEER'S PARADISE

In between all those active moments, enjoy ample intervals for simply taking in the magical atmosphere as your Crystal ship navigates the Inside Passage. This glorious network of protected water meanders past countless forested islands, mountains, glaciers and fjords on its span from Vancouver to the Alaskan Panhandle and Anchorage. Marine and terrestrial wildlife abounds, so keep your eyes peeled.

& Northern Europe

Ponder the colossal grandeur of Russia's imperial-era landmarks. Amble through centuries along Edinburgh's Royal Mile, or into a medieval fairytale in Tallinn. Sample Iceland's trademark mix of urban energy and pure Arctic wilderness. Surrender to Amsterdam's watery embrace. Marvel at Helsinki's art and architecture, or shop for Harris tweed in Stornoway. Retrace the steps of Joan of Arc, serenaded by the bells of Rouen. Toast your exploits in a Victorian Belfast pub. In Northern Europe, regal splendor and earthy adventure share the stage.

THE BALTIC

The destinations along these shores have seen centuries of battle, the rise and fall of empires, and the coming of a modern world. From the colorful Hanseatic port of Warnemünde to the cutting-edge capitals of Scandinavia and the gilded spectacle that is St. Petersburg — your Crystal ship carries you deep into Baltic discovery. And the region’s majestic fjords, meandering canals and lush mountain forests — not to mention its world-class urban parks — ensure ample encounters with the kingdom of nature here as well.

THE BRITISH ISLES

Despite the traditional pomp and pageantry of its royals, the British, Scottish, and Irish are down-to-earth and approachable; especially in the more remote Hebrides, Orkneys and Isle of Man. History buffs can spend contented days hopping from castle to palace to cathedral, while those with a passion for modern architecture will be amply rewarded as well. Foodies will find no end of culinary discoveries, while craft beer aficionados will be in suds heaven. Legendary golf and famously trek-friendly terrain add to the pleasures. As does the tea.

CRUISE PROTECTION PROGRAM

To help ensure your peace of mind, we recommend you consider our Cruise Protection Programs, uniquely designed for the guests of Crystal. These programs provide travel insurance coverage and emergency assistance services preferred by most travelers. The programs provide reimbursement for penalties that may be assessed due to cancellations for covered reasons, and provide medical expense reimbursement for accidents or illness that may occur overseas. And, if your claim is denied due to a pre-existing medical condition, the Cruise Protection Program offers participants a special "Cruise Credit Rollover Feature" that allows you to apply the cancellation fees as a credit toward a future cruise.

Guests may indicate their preference for our Personal Select Air Program at time of booking or at any time prior to sailing. Flight options will be made available ten months prior to cruise departure. Personal Select Air Program rates are based on the selected itinerary and include transfers between the airport and pier on embarkation/disembarkation dates. Guests participating in this optional program have the assurance of Crystal's support in the event of unanticipated airline or cruise schedule changes or delays which may impact their air travel plans.
