Dear Traveler,

I hope this finds you in good health and spirits as the new year gets underway. When we founded Viking with four river vessels in 1997, we had a vision that travel could be more destination focused and culturally immersive. We wanted to offer experiences designed for the thinking person—for curious travelers. Our mission at the time is the same as it is today: “Exploring the world in comfort.”

First, we set the standard for modern river cruises; then we reinvented ocean cruises with the launch of our award-winning small ship voyages. Now in our 25th year we are perfecting expedition voyages with our new, extraordinary journeys to the ends of the earth and closer to home.

In Antarctica, breathtaking vistas, otherworldly wildlife and the journey itself leave an indelible mark on visitors. In the Great Lakes, stunning national parks are best explored from the water and unique ecosystems of remote wilderness islands await. And the wonders and wildlife of South America can be discovered with journeys along the continent’s east and west coasts.

With the launch of Viking Expeditions, we are welcoming two new, purpose-built vessels. Just like our river and ocean ships are optimally sized, the new 378-guest Viking Octantis and Viking Polaris are right sized for expeditions—small enough to navigate remote polar regions and the St. Lawrence River, while large enough to provide superior handling and stability in rough seas. Engineered with the latest innovations for environmentally considerate sailing and maximum opportunities for nature viewing, these ships also offer all the elegance and amenities expected from Viking.

Regardless of what destination piques your curiosity, I encourage you to take advantage of our Explorers’ Sale and reserve now while limited space is still available. And of course, all those returning to Viking can save up to $400 per person with our special Double Past Guest savings promotion. With the Viking Health & Safety Program in place, you can explore the world in comfort—and with great confidence.

Thank you for your interest in Viking; we look forward to welcoming you on board.

THE THINKING PERSON'S EXPEDITION

Experiences created for curious travelers

WE ALL TRAVEL TO EXPLORE, TO LEARN, TO UNDERSTAND. At Viking, we believe travel should be more than just a trip—it should be a gateway to insight and discoveries. We design our itineraries so our guests can explore and engage with the nature, culture, science and history of their destination.

VIKING EXPEDITIONS EXPANDS ON THAT MISSION, journeying to the unexplored wilderness both at the far reaches of the world and in the heart of North America. We have reenvisioned expedition voyages to facilitate exploration and scientific discovery. Even our ship details inform, from our mural of whales to our lifelike felt birds indigenous to the areas we visit, created with the assistance of Cornell Lab of Ornithology to ensure their accuracy.

BEFORE YOU TRAVEL, we provide materials to help you get the most out of your journey, from destination-specific photography advice by professionals to filmographies that inspire wanderlust and recommended reading that enlightens.

ONBOARD ACTIVITIES are designed for the thinking traveler, with daily briefings and world-class lectures. Guests can engage with working scientists in our Science Lab or participate in citizen science programs.

ON SHORE, guests can assist in fieldwork or interact through experiential activities. They can help identify migratory patterns, accompany scientists to collect samples or learn from a professional photographer how to capture incredible landscapes.

GUESTS CONNECT with like-minded travelers on board our ships. And by journey's end, our guests should feel more connected—to our Viking Experts, resident scientists, newfound friends and the world.

EXCLUSIVE SCIENTIFIC PARTNERSHIPS

Viking Resident Scientists provide invaluable insight

OUR EXPERIENCED EXPEDITION TEAM is led by Jørn Henriksen, Director of Expedition Operations, who grew up and lived in Arctic Norway for over 45 years and worked there in expedition management for 25 years, and Dr. Damon Stanwell-Smith, a marine biologist with a 27-year career involved with the Antarctic.

OUR VIKING SCIENTIFIC ADVISORY COMMITTEE is chaired by Professor Julian Dowdeswell, Director of the Scott Polar Research Institute, and consists of several leading scientific institutions in atmospheric sciences, botany, glaciology, marine biology and ornithology.

WE ARE HONORED to have legendary polar explorers Liv Arnesen and Ann Bancroft as our ships' godmothers.

OUR LEAD PARTNER is the University of Cambridge's Scott Polar Research Institute, whose scientists will conduct fieldwork and share their expertise with our guests. This is underpinned by a Viking endowment for scientific research of the polar regions.

WE HAVE ALSO PARTNERED with the Cornell Lab of Ornithology. Their ornithologists will collect data for their bird observation database (eBird.com) and interact with guests.

OUR ONBOARD EXPEDITION PROGRAM is designed to prepare guests for their onshore experiences, with over 25 experts accompanying each journey including our Viking Expedition Team and Viking Resident Scientists from our partnerships.

DESIGNED AS WORKING RESEARCH VESSELS, Viking Octantis and Viking Polaris are equipped with a well-appointed Science Lab. They have also been designated weather stations, from which we will launch weather balloons.

PERFECTING THE EXPEDITION EXPERIENCE

AFTER LEADING THE RIVER CRUISE INDUSTRY for over two decades and reinventing ocean cruising with our small ship experience, we are taking our destination-focused journeys to the far reaches of the globe. Many expedition ships are refurbished survey vessels or smaller, older cruise ships with limited amenities, small windows and limited public areas. The belief was that if you wanted to explore these places, you had to do it in relative discomfort. But at Viking, we have a different perspective—you can explore in comfort. We have applied our years of expertise to create the perfect expedition experience. The result is two new, purpose-built ships optimally sized for expeditions: small enough to navigate remote areas, yet large enough to provide speed, superior handling and stability in the roughest seas. Our vessels merge comfort and exploration in an unprecedented way. This optimized size also facilitates enhanced enrichment activities by carrying a fleet of Zodiacs, Special Operations Boats, kayaks and submarines, and providing outstanding venues for onboard lectures and learning.

A NEW STANDARD FOR EXPEDITIONS: SHIPS LIKE NO OTHER. Marvels of technology, our expedition ships have a dynamic positioning mode, enabling a “hover in place” when anchoring is difficult or prohibited. This preserves sensitive wildlife habitats on the sea floor and also provides guests with safer, more comfortable excursion craft embarkation. Additionally, our vessels feature both conventional fin stabilizers that reduce rolling while sailing, and a U-tank stabilizer that can significantly decrease rolling by about 50% when the ships are stationary. The Hangar—a unique in-ship marina complete with a slipway—provides guests with smooth Zodiac and Special Operations Boat launches from inside the ship, sheltered from the wind and waves.

BUILT FOR EXPLORATION IN SENSITIVE ENVIRONMENTS, our ships meet the most stringent standards. We designed the vessels with a suite of sensors to collect oceanographic data, our operations are fully compliant with all polar organization guidelines, and we employ state-of-the-art biosecurity.

EVERYWHERE, A FOCUS ON PANORAMIC VIEWS. State-of-the-art technology is just one benefit of our outstanding vessels: with more indoor and outdoor viewing areas than other expedition vessels, guests are as close as possible to the most majestic scenery on Earth. We located public spaces on the upper decks, furnishing them with floor-to-ceiling windows for optimal viewing. Our unique panoramic auditorium at sea, The Aula, offers stunning 270° views. And of course, even guests’ private retreats are designed to maximize observation opportunities, from our industry-leading Nordic Balcony staterooms to Explorer Suites with verandas and gardens, and an Owner’s Suite complete with a private veranda, sauna, terrace and badestamp, a Norwegian hot tub.

THE NORDIC SPA

SAIL IN SCANDINAVIAN STYLE

Innovative, light-filled spaces where comfort meets discovery

WE PUT GREAT EFFORT INTO ENVISIONING WHAT AN EXPEDITION SHOULD BE. The result is a distinctly Viking experience from the moment you set foot on board. Our expedition ships are customized to navigate the planet's most remote environments but offer the same comfort as our ocean and river ships. Slip into the easy elegance of Nordic furnishings, refined finishes and panoramic views from any spot on the ship.

OPEN AND SERENE SCANDINAVIAN SPACES greet you throughout. Settle into the Aquavit Bar for an afternoon Irish coffee or stop by The Living Room to listen to a classical trio. THE AULA

The world's first panoramic auditorium at sea

SETTING A NEW STANDARD YET AGAIN, Viking has created the world's most advanced venue for learning at sea. The Aula, a stunning panoramic auditorium, was inspired by the University of Oslo's famed Aula ceremonial hall, which used to be the venue for the Nobel Peace Prize ceremony. This unique space on our expedition ships features a 4K laser-projected panoramic screen spanning nearly the entire width of the room, and is used for lectures, daily briefings, science presentations and films. Two decks high and seating 190, The Aula can accommodate half the ship's guests at a time. Tiered seating ensures optimal views from every location, and plentiful Marius-weave blankets provide comfort. But The Aula is so much more, because the panoramic screen retracts, cantilevering up into the ceiling and exposing a wall of windows.

A 270° VIEW SURROUNDS GUESTS IN THIS INCREDIBLE VENUE. With floor-to-ceiling glass on three sides of the auditorium, nature takes center stage. In addition, two large bottom windows slide open, providing access to the adjacent al fresco Finse Terrace and allowing guests to enjoy the unique indoor-outdoor experience, immersed in nature. Envision a Viking Resident Scientist lecturing on cephalopods while guests catch a glimpse of breaching humpbacks; or relaxing on the heated seats by the lava rock "firepits" on the Finse Terrace with a Viking ornithologist, discussing a bald eagle overhead. Lectures can even be presented with the windows unencumbered by the panoramic screen — with a smaller, pop-up screen.

EXPLORE THE WORLD'S MOST ADVANCED LEARNING VENUE AT SEA

THE HANGAR & THE SCIENCE LAB

A unique in-ship marina and working scientific laboratory

AN INDUSTRY FIRST, THE HANGAR BRINGS TRUE COMFORT TO EXPEDITION CRUISING. This enclosed, in-ship marina permits the launch of small excursion craft through the ship's shell doors. The Hangar's most innovative feature is the slipway that allows guests to embark on Special Operations Boats shielded from wind and waves from a stable surface inside the ship, and once on board, to glide into the water. On return, guests enter via The Hangar in their Special Operations Boat before disembarking. Guests can observe The Hangar from the windows above, witnessing small boat launches, maintenance and biosecurity protocols. There are also FerryBoxes, instruments continuously collecting and displaying data on water quality, oxygen content, plankton composition and more.

A SCIENCE LAB STAFFED BY VIKING RESIDENT SCIENTISTS. Developed in consultation with Cambridge University and other academic partners, it supports a range of research activities and is equipped with wet and dry laboratory capabilities, a sample-processing area, fume cupboard, freezer/cool storage, comprehensive microscope optics and space for analysis-specific instruments. Guests receive supervised laboratory access to learn from and participate with scientists undertaking primary research, an experience unique to Viking. Field samples collected during excursions, submarine dives and landings will be analyzed, interpreted and discussed with guests, providing stimulating engagement and unique insight into how data is collected in remote locations to inform global conservation decisions.

ANTARCTICA

SEEING ANTARCTICA FOR THE FIRST TIME will steal your breath away. Few places on Earth are this vast and otherworldly, with raw, sculpted landscapes awash in blue and white. This is nature at its most flawless—an experience sure to transform you.

THE IDEAL TIME TO EXPLORE IS THE ANTARCTIC SUMMER which starts in November, when the cold, windy weather turns to 24-hour sunlight and temperatures rise to a comfortable 32° Fahrenheit. In this season the ice melts, unlocking seaways that were frozen in winter. This is the optimal time to visit, often with relatively open water, clear weather and endless views.

ANTARCTIC ACTIVITIES range from relaxing to active. Zodiac excursions and shore landings give you unparalleled opportunities to view and photograph wildlife at sea and on shore, while optional excursions offer cross-country skiing, snowshoeing or overnight camping and take you into seldom seen parts of the peninsula. Participating in ongoing scientific research with our Viking Resident Scientists will get you closer to your destination.

AS MEMBERS OF IAATO, we abide by all their regulations to ensure safe, responsible visits to Antarctica.

THE WILDLIFE OF ANTARCTICA

Watch the drama of life unfold

ANIMALS BUSTLE AND THRIVE under the midnight sun, as native penguin and seal species compress the cycle of life into a short season, and migratory birds and whales take advantage of the ocean's rich bounty. Each day affords a new opportunity to witness nature at work. Learn more about the flora and fauna of Antarctica at viking.com/expeditionvideos.

GENTOO PENGUINS

The world's fastest diving bird, Gentoo penguins can dive at speeds greater than 20 miles per hour during their hunt for krill, squid and fish.

ADÉLIE PENGUINS

Spending summers on the islands of Antarctica and the rest of the year on the continent, Adélie penguins dive as far as 600 feet under water in search of food.

CHINSTRAP PENGUINS

The narrow black band under their chin easily identifies these penguins, and their tightly packed feathers allows them to swim in freezing waters.

WHALES

Plentiful fish, squid, krill and plankton beckon minke whales, humpbacks and blue whales, while orca pods feast on seals.

SEALS

Among Antarctica's population are doe-eyed Weddell seals, fierce leopard seals, fur seals and deep-diving elephant seals.

MIGRATORY BIRDS

Abundant food makes the Antarctic peninsula a summer home for Antarctic terns, shags, various albatross and petrels.

GREAT LAKES SCENERY

THE GREAT LAKES

THE LARGEST FRESHWATER ECOSYSTEM ON EARTH, over 750 miles across and with 10,000 miles of coastline, America’s Great Lakes are a wonderland of diverse natural environments, iconic wildlife and some of the most fascinating cities in North America.

EMBARK ON AN ADVENTURE IN THIS UNDER-EXPLORED REGION. Visit world-famous Niagara Falls — actually a group of three falls — and hear the majestic roar that has been immortalized in countless poems and literature. Or explore Sleeping Giant Provincial Park, a tranquil park featuring a variety forest trails for hiking, as well as boating, biking, bird-watching and wildlife viewing. At the same time, city sophistication is never too far away. Toronto, Canada’s largest and most diverse city, is renowned for its multicultural dining experiences, theater, art galleries and museums, while Chicago, one of America’s great cities, is a melting pot of arts and culture, great restaurants and an unforgettable skyline.

THIS IS A LAND THAT BEGS FOR EXPLORATION — whether by kayak gliding silently past industrious otters or pink Precambrian rock islands — or by a visit to one of Canada’s most prominent museums to marvel at paintings inspired by these shores.

THE WILDLIFE OF THE GREAT LAKES

Discover the abundant animals who call this region “home”

THE GREAT LAKES ARE AN IDEAL ANIMAL HABITAT with vast swaths of protected shoreline and an array of natural parks and wilderness areas. Here, a diverse ecosystem exists surrounded by spruce, fir, pine and maple forests, with steep granite cliffs and flat coastal wetlands.

MOOSE

The largest of all deer species, moose can stand six feet tall from hoof to shoulder, with massive antlers that span up to six feet wide.

BALD EAGLES

With vision far more acute than a human’s, these raptors — named for their white heads and necks — feast mostly on fish and carrion.

GRAY WOLVES

Predatory pack animals and the largest members of the dog family, wolves were hunted to near extinction in the lower 48 states.

BLACK BEARS

The most common bear in North America, these solitary forest dwellers range in color from black and brown to cinnamon and even white.

BEAVERS

These ingenious builders dam streams with timber, mud and stones to slow the water’s flow and construct lodges in the resulting ponds.

OTHER BIRDS

With habitats ranging from forests to wetlands, the Great Lakes are home to a variety of birds, including the piping plover, wood thrush and woodpecker.

Message from our Chairman

Viking Chairman Torstein Hagen introduces the new Viking Health & Safety Program and discusses the research that has informed the basis for our protocol enhancements.

▶ TO VIEW CHAIRMAN HAGEN'S VIDEO MESSAGE, VISIT VIKING.COM/HEALTH-SAFETY.

VIKING HEALTH & SAFETY PROGRAM

Explore in comfort and with confidence

AS THE LEADING SMALL SHIP TRAVEL COMPANY, our Switzerland-registered river vessels host just 190 or fewer guests; our fleet of Norwegian-registered all-veranda ocean ships and all-Nordic Balcony expedition ships host only 930 guests and 378 guests, respectively. For more than 24 years, we have always had high standards for health and cleanliness—and our new protocol enhancements make Viking even safer. Developed in coordination with an international team of scientific and medical advisors, the Viking Health & Safety Program is one of the most well-researched and comprehensive COVID-19 prevention and mitigation plans in the travel industry.

- WITH VACCINATIONS REQUIRED—and a minimum age of 18 to travel—Viking is one of the only true fully vaccinated travel companies
- FREQUENT QUICK & EASY NON-INVASIVE PCR TESTS for all Viking guests and crew, processed in full-scale Viking-dedicated laboratories—an industry first
- NEW AIR PURIFICATION TECHNOLOGY installed on all Viking ships. Enjoy fresh air in your stateroom, knowing that all staterooms on Viking ocean, river and expedition ships feature independent air handling units that do not share air with other areas of the ship
- REDESIGNED LAND PROGRAMS, including training for all local partners, will meet or exceed local guidelines while Viking guests are ashore

LABORATORY-PROCESSED PCR TESTS

FREQUENT PCR TESTING & DEDICATED LABORATORIES

Quick and easy non-invasive saliva PCR tests for all guests and crew are conducted as part of the embarkation process and frequently throughout the cruise itinerary. Viking uses high-quality, high-sensitivity laboratory-processed PCR tests and has partnered with Medcover, a leading international Healthcare and Diagnostic Services company, to equip its ocean and expedition ships with the world's first full-scale PCR laboratories at sea. As part of this partnership, a strong network of dedicated shoreside labs in Europe will bring the same testing regime to Viking river ships. At the end of your itinerary, Viking also provides you with the negative PCR test result needed for your return flight home.

VICE ADMIRAL RAQUEL C. BONO, M.D., VIKING CHIEF HEALTH OFFICER

EXPERT HEALTH PARTNERS

Grounded in proprietary epidemiological research, the Viking Health & Safety Program was developed in partnership with an international team of scientific and medical advisors, including Raquel C. Bono, M.D., Viking's Chief Health Officer. Dr. Bono is a board-certified trauma surgeon and retired Vice Admiral of the United States Navy Medical Corps—and most recently led Washington State's medical and healthcare systems response to the COVID-19 pandemic.

NEW PROTOCOL ENHANCEMENTS

WHAT TO EXPECT? AN EVEN SAFER VOYAGE

From at-home preparation and health checks to enhanced medical services and redesigned land programs, the Viking Health & Safety Program addresses all points of your journey. With vaccinations required, combined with frequent non-invasive saliva PCR testing and the structural advantages of our small ships, we believe there is no safer way to explore the world than on a Viking journey.

Air promotion applies to economy, roundtrip flights only from select Viking River Cruises North American gateways and includes airport-to-ship or hotel transfers, air taxes and air fuel surcharges. Explore More pricing is based on extension hotel check-in date. Viking reserves the right to correct errors or omissions and to change any and all fares, fees and surcharges at any time. The cruise ship fuel surcharge is add'l revenue to Viking River Cruises, as does any add'l charge relating to currency fluctuation other than for fully paid cruise fares and full fares, which fluctuations are beyond our control. Add'l terms and conditions may apply. See complete terms and conditions at viking.com.
