Dear Traveller,

Life is a journey worth celebrating. This idea is central to what we do at Regent Seven Seas Cruises®, fuelling our passion for ensuring every guest aboard our award-winning fleet enjoys an unrivalled travel experience that goes beyond 'all-inclusive'.

In the summer of 2023, you'll find opportunities to experience the perfect juxtaposition of total luxury and untamed beauty as Seven Seas Explorer® cruises the magnificent shores of Alaska. In the autumn of the same year, we invite you to join us as we celebrate the arrival of the newest member of The World's Most Luxurious Fleet™ when Seven Seas Grandeur™ sets sail from the Mediterranean to the Caribbean for a tropical experience unlike any before. In 2024 and 2025, we'll continue to cruise to every stunning region of the planet, from the warm waters of the South Pacific to the pristine wilderness in South America to the elegant scenes decorating Europe's magnificent coastlines.

I also hope you'll savour your time ashore with our new Epicurean Explorations — part of our expanded culinary programming — as you experience all the unique and flavourful ways to engage with your destination. And, as always, we introduce new ports of call every year, with our most recent voyage collection debut introducing some breathtaking locales across Northern Europe and the Mediterranean.

There are many ways to enjoy life's journey, but nothing compares to sailing with Regent Seven Seas Cruises®. Our crew can't wait to welcome you aboard to see why our guests continue to return voyage after voyage for yet another unrivalled experience.

May you enjoy every moment,

EPICUREAN EXPLORATIONS

The flavours of a particular region or a specific culture create unique connections that are unlike any other. Therefore, we continue to develop and curate special culinary experiences in each of the incredible regions to which we sail.

Unique to our Culinary Arts Kitchen Experiences, our specially curated, Master Chef-led Epicurean Explorer Tours invite you to learn something new as you immerse your palate in the cultural flavours of your destination. Dozens of wine-centric excursions await with our Wine & Spirits Tours. Get the inside scoop on where the pros go to indulge their taste buds with our Where the Chefs Eat Tours. These and many more opportunities to taste and savour your destination are available with our Epicurean Explorations.

GO LOCAL TOURS

One of the best ways to find off-the-beaten-path experiences is to think like a local, and Go Local Tours provide connections with local culture through community members themselves. Witness how the locals of Stockholm breathe new life and beauty into the city they call home, from wonderfully enhanced and decorated public transport to the bohemian vibes of Södermalm. In Alaska, walk the streets of Sitka guided by a knowledgeable local sharing historic tales and insights into the city's affection for the arts. Experience a new world of hospitality and discover the best of what you didn't know about your favourite destinations with Go Local Tours.

ECO-CONNECT TOURS

Engage with local groups and businesses to learn about how they're transforming the world around them, while experiencing the impact of their efforts first-hand.

Witness the natural beauty of a mangrove habitat in Bali and help ensure its future by planting seedlings as you learn its importance as a sanctuary for indigenous crabs, or tour an organic vineyard in Almeria to learn how this family-operated wine producer utilises sustainable practices. Converse with, learn from and observe the local community as they work to conserve and sustain the surrounding environment on our unique Eco-Connect Tours.

BEHIND-THE-DESIGN TOURS

Glimpse behind the scenes of some of the most captivating and brilliant designs around the world. Learn from an art historian about the undulating design of the Oodi Central Library and see its beautiful contrast to the strong lines and terraced main hall of the Helsinki Music Centre, or edify yourself with insights into three of Rome's more modern attractions: La Nuvola, MAXXI and Auditorium Parco della Musica. Witness superb architectural feats and more, gaining special insights from knowledgeable guides about the inspiration, reasoning and genius that brought these marvels to life on a Behind-the-Design Tour.

SERENE SPA & WELLNESS™ TOURS

Enjoy a revitalising shoreside experience with a Serene Spa & Wellness™ Tour. Centre yourself surrounded by the verdant beauty of the Samford Valley as you engage in a holistic yoga, meditation and chanting session at Zen Space in Australia. Or, experience the organic crops and flavours of Corfu after being guided through mindful meditation and specific yoga poses to help revitalise your being. Restore and rejuvenate your mind, body and soul as you engage the world through our Serene Spa & Wellness™ Tours.

TASTE THE WORLD

The memorable aroma of a favourite dish can transport us across the globe in an instant, while a new flavour can enshrine a special moment for all time.

Nothing enhances travel like cuisine.

UNRIVALLED CUISINE™

EPICUREAN INDULGENCE

The lighting and layout of the room. The palette of colours and texture of the linens. The shape and design of the dinnerware. Every detail sets the stage as you step into this evening's dining experience.

The maitre d' directs the servers, who play their roles to perfection, in step with the rhythm of your requests and the mastery of the chef's preparation. Your sommelier skilfully guides you toward the ideal pairing for your meal. The finale before the curtain closes? Perhaps a soothing coffee or indulgent dessert? As with all the rest, the choice is yours.

Our onboard culinary experiences go well beyond our inclusion of offering more speciality restaurants than any other luxury or premium cruise line. Special tastings, deck-top regional barbecues and enriching cooking classes are just a few of the other ingredients that come together to create culinary encounters that are discernibly unrivalled.

SKAGWAY, ALASKA

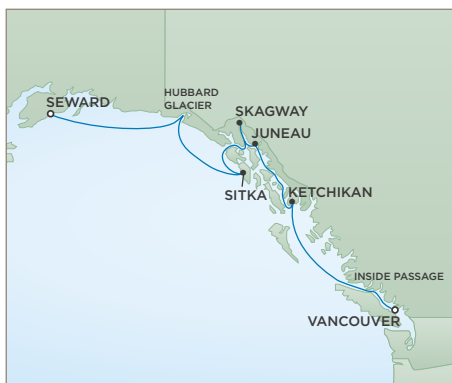

RAILWAY PANORAMAS & RAW WILDERNESS

Inside, your train car is comfortable and quiet.

Outside is perhaps the grandest wilderness in North America. As a gentle rhythm conveys your narrow-gauge train's ascent up the storied White Pass, you take in an array of South-east Alaska panoramas: the Skagway River cascading over boulders, pine tree-covered valleys, glacier-topped mountains and the spirit of Klondike Gold Rush prospectors in search of elusive treasure.

Railways are a perfect companion to a luxury cruise in Alaska, offering a different perspective of the dramatic wilds of Alaska and British Columbia. Read on for adventures that feature a ride on the Alaska Railroad to Denali National Park and a tour of the Canadian West that ends with a Rocky Mountaineer train journey. There's also a visit to Pacific Northwest wine country, a flavourful excursion to Juneau, and more.

HISTORY & CULTURE IN SITKA

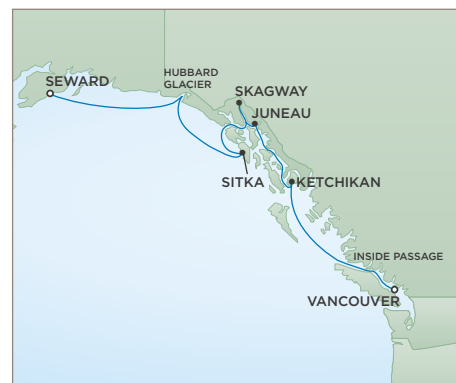

SITKA, ALASKA

Snuggled between a mountain range known as the Three Sisters and Sitka Sound, this small town's natural beauty is nothing short of epic. Founded by fur traders as New Archangel in 1799, Sitka remained a foreign settlement for nearly 70 years until the U.S. acquired the vast Alaska territory in 1867, which you can learn more about at the Sitka History Museum. Stroll the downtown's numerous art galleries, shops and restaurants, perhaps stopping for a hearty bowl of clam chowder. Beneath a canopy of towering trees, behold the 18 totems carved by Tlingit and Haida artists along the remarkable Totem Trail in Sitka National Historical Park.

Indulge in the best of Alaska on a unique excursion to the most famous of Juneau's ice floes followed by a beer tasting and sampling of authentic Alaskan dishes. Begin with a drive to the Mendenhall Glacier Visitor Center. Only 19 Kilometres from Juneau, Alaska's most accessible glacier is a spectacular sight, and the visitor centre provides a panoramic vantage point for taking in its half-mile-wide face. Return to Juneau for an off-the-beaten-path stop at the Alaskan Brewing Company's tasting room, where you'll discover how the brewery uses local ingredients to produce distinct favourites. Finish up with an authentic Alaskan meal at a local restaurant.

A CANNERY, A CREEK & CARVINGS

KETCHIKAN, ALASKA

You need not know this Inside Passage town's history to be charmed by Creek Street's brightly coloured buildings perched on stilts over Ketchikan Creek. Of course, the more you learn, the more you'll appreciate the frontier mystique of this former 'Salmon Capital of the World'. Step aboard a pontoon boat for a cruise along the breathtaking George Inlet, passing the cannery declared a historical landmark in 1996. Watch Alaska's lumberjacks battle British Columbia's premier woodsmen in a spirited competition. The indigenous Haida and Tlingit have made totem poles the emblem of Ketchikan — wander through Totem Bight State Historical Park to marvel at over a dozen.

TONGASS NATIONAL FOREST
ICY STRAIT POINT, ALASKA

WILD BEAUTY IN ALASKA

ICY STRAIT POINT, ALASKA

Immerse yourself in truly unspoiled wilderness. Set deep in the heart of the 17-million-acre Tongass National Forest — the largest in the U.S. — this port is centred around a restored salmon cannery that features a museum, restaurants and local arts and crafts shops. Take a whale-watching tour from Hoonah, the largest Tlingit village in Alaska. Drive a Jeep along the old logging roads that criss-cross Chichagof Island, home to more brown bears than humans. Watch for Sitka black-tailed deer and bald eagles as you ascend Hoonah Mountain in a window-walled gondola before riding a tram past towering stands of Sitka spruce and western hemlock.

COLOURFUL CHARACTERS

SKAGWAY, ALASKA

This legendary town was known to thousands of hopeful gold rushers as the gateway to their fortunes. Skagway retains the flavour of the gold rush era and the character of such colourful inhabitants as Soapy Smith, 'King of the Frontier Con Men'. You may even recreate the famed drive when an Alaskan humorist drove U.S. President Warren G. Harding around town in a 1920s car or, if you prefer to go on foot, step back in time with one of the sensational madams of the Red Onion Saloon. Lavishly-costumed and highly entertaining, a madam will greet your arrival, and then guide you through Skagway's streets and back alleys.

AN ICY MARVEL

HUBBARD GLACIER, ALASKA

Hubbard Glacier is not a port, but an experience you won't forget. When you come face-to-face with the mighty Hubbard, watch as shards of blue ice crack and crumble before your eyes, as the glacier calves several times an hour. You may even spot a whale spout alongside the floating 400-year-old ice that was once on the face of this massive glacier. It's the largest tidewater glacier in North America at an incredible 122 kilometres long, 106 metres above the water and 365 metres deep. Hubbard has been nicknamed the 'galloping glacier' because of how quickly it's advancing toward the Gulf of Alaska through Disenchantment Bay.

Icy Strait Point's Spasski River Valley is home to diverse wildlife — most famously grizzly bears. From perfectly camouflaged viewing platforms, you can watch the brown bears feed on salmon in the river. The journey through the valley is a naturalist's dream. The bogs and forests along the river are peaceful, serene and untouched. Your guide will point you in the right direction, teach you about the fascinating local flora and fauna, and even find the wild berries that the Sitka blacktailed deer love so much. HO CHI MINH CITY, VIETNAM

CITY SIGHTS & CULTURAL FLAIR

HO CHI MINH CITY, VIETNAM

It's impossible not to get swept up in the electric energy of Vietnam's largest city. Alive and moving with motorbikes, markets and marvels along every byway, Ho Chi Minh City is a sight to behold. Once the capital of the French protectorate and South Vietnam, the city formerly known as Saigon is a modern economic powerhouse where you can shop for everything from antiques and designer goods to inexpensive souvenirs in the Ben Thanh Market. Visit Reunification Palace (the site of the 1975 fall of Saigon) or just get swept up in the flow of street life (and street food!), surrounded by towering skyscrapers and French Colonial facades.

TEMPLE DOOR
MUMBAI, INDIA

RHYTHM OF LIFE

MUMBAI, INDIA

Feel the buzz of South Asian life in all its colours and charisma in the city formerly known as Bombay. Local life fills the streets, bustling markets abound and you never know if you'll find a temple or a modern shopping centre down any given street. This is the capital of Maharashtra state and the Hindi film and TV industry's Bollywood capital, too. A driving tour takes you past some of Mumbai's most iconic landmarks, like the Gateway of India arch, as well as more everyday scenery – perhaps people chanting in prayer or a look at the Dhobi Ghat, where workers huddle over hundreds of pieces of clothing each day at an open-air laundry.

ANCIENT WONDERS

KYOTO, JAPAN

Japan's ancient imperial city in the Kansai region is the one from postcards, with the shadowy forests of Arashiyama Bamboo Grove, blossoming cherry trees around the World Heritage-listed Ninnaji Temple and elegant geisha among the many sights you can admire in this supremely scenic city. Make time for a traditional tea ritual and see seasonal blooms in the Kyoto Botanical Gardens, considered among the finest in all of Japan. In the city's beautifully preserved and historic Higashiyama District, shops, restaurants serving kaiseki meals and more tea shops abound. A train ride south to Nara Park brings you face to face with free-roaming sacred deer that are considered a national treasure.

BAJANG RATU FROM SURABAYA, INDONESIA

CULTURAL CONNECTIONS

SURABAYA, INDONESIA

Arab, Chinese and colonial Dutch influences meet in the capital of East Java province and one of Indonesia's largest cities. Surabaya is known to Indonesians as the 'City of Heroes' thanks to its role in the Battle of Surabaya, which took place against British and Indian troops in 1945 during the Indonesian Revolution. Today, it's a dynamic port city where glittering skyscrapers contrast with mangrove-lined canals. Sample the spicy curries and soups of East Java's legendary cuisine, and marvel at the cable-stayed Suramadu National Bridge, one of Indonesia's longest at nearly 5.4 kilometres that connects the sprawling city to the neighbouring island of Madura.

MISO RAMEN
SAPPORO, JAPAN

IMMERSE YOURSELF IN JAPANESE CULTURE

SAPPORO, JAPAN

You might know its name already from the eponymous Japanese beer. However, the capital of Hokkaidō is worth discovering for more than just the Sapporo beer made here, at one of the country's oldest breweries, since 1876. Another claim to fame is the city's signature ramen noodles, made with salty miso and snow water from Hokkaido's famous ski mountain, Mount Teine. At over 90 metres, the observation deck of the Sapporo TV tower offers magnificent views of the city and beyond. And each spring, the city's stunning Maruyama Park is shaded in hues of pink as cherry blossoms — a highlight here since ancient times — burst into bloom.

PUDONG DISTRICT
SHANGHAI, CHINA

MODERN MARVEL

SHANGHAI, CHINA

With one of the world's tallest buildings (Shanghai Tower) stretching a dizzying 632 metres skyward, Shanghai's glittering and prolific skyline tends to elicit gasps when it comes into view for those seeing it for the first time. So you might be surprised to find out that China's second largest city and buzzing financial hub – also one of the largest cities in the world (population roughly 26 million) – has surprisingly subtle highlights to round out ultra-modern and glitzy Pudong. From the leafy streets and interesting architecture of the French Concession to tucked away oases like Huangpu Park near the Bund and Jing'an Park, with its nearby Buddhist temple and lily-lined pond, Shanghai's surprises abound.

FEAST FOR THE SENSES

TOKYO, JAPAN

Japan's capital and largest city is many things to many people. This hyper-modern city has ancient sensibilities and invites visitors to choose their adventure when exploring its many facets. Will you dive into Tokyo's legendary food culture — filling up on sushi and udon noodles and visiting the Toyosu Fish Market? Or, perhaps you'll set out to discover a popular karaoke bar or to find out what makes Wagyu beef so prized. Autumn colours will be starting to emerge on a peaceful walk through the East Gardens of the Imperial Palace, and the Sensoji Temple is an equally historic and beautiful sight to see. You might also enjoy the streets of Harajuku, where Japanese youth fashion evolves in real time. These opportunities merely scratch the surface of all Tokyo has to offer.

BUSAN, SOUTH KOREA

ENDLESS DISCOVERIES

BUSAN, SOUTH KOREA

South Korea's second largest city sits at the south-eastern tip of the Korean peninsula and beckons with a completely different appeal than Seoul, to the north. Verdant mountains make a lush backdrop to the city's glittering skyscrapers, with coastal and mountain walking paths cutting through cedar forests and along popular Haeundae Beach, right in the heart of Busan. In Seomyeon, the city's commercial hub, ultra-modern scenes mingle alongside the traditional. Whether you're looking to café hop in Gwangju, haggle over squid and shrimp from the Jagalchi Fish Market near the harbour or hike to a Buddhist temple in Seokbulsa, you can do it all in Busan.

SPARKLING BEAUTY IN THE BAY

BAY OF ISLANDS, NEW ZEALAND

Secluded bays, pristine beaches and abundant marine life spread across 144 sparkling islands nearly overwhelm the human history of this North Island jewel. The Maori knew it as Pewhairangi and settled here as early as the 10th century. In the 19th century, Russell became the first permanent European settlement, and it was here that the Treaty of Waitangi was first signed in 1840. Your modern options are many: Paddle the tranquil waters of Waitangi Estuary on a scenic kayaking tour; see Motukokako Island and its dramatic Hole in the Rock arch; or, visit beautiful Omata, once an arrival point for European immigrants and today a successful wine-growing region.

MAGNIFIQUE MONTRÉAL & FOREST FIREWORKS

You knew early on you would finish your wander of Old Montréal at a sidewalk café. Temptations were everywhere, from the cluster of lively bistros and wine bars in Place Jacques-Cartier to patisseries sweetening the air around Notre-Dame Basilica. Now, steam rises from your coffee as golden hour sunlight catches the dome of Bonsecours Market. You nibble a flaky kouign-amann and, almost involuntarily, raise your cup to this très magnifique city.

As evidenced by Montréal's beloved Mount Royal Park, the natural wonders and charming cities of Canada and New England are transformed by shades of ochre, red and orange every autumn. Read on for a journey to the vibrant Canadian capital city of Ottawa, picturesque ports on Rhode Island's Narragansett Bay and Québec's Saguenay Fjord, and more.

GILDED AGE DELIGHTS

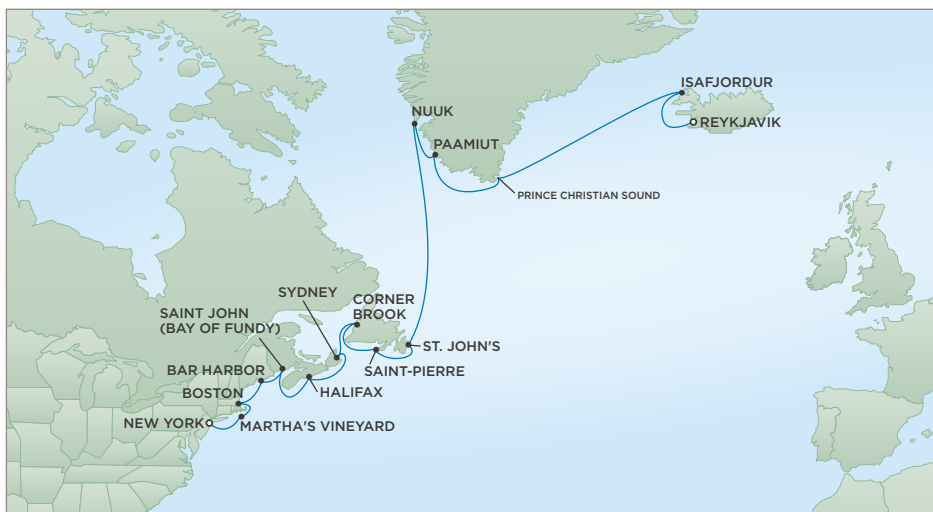

NEWPORT, RHODE ISLAND

It's rare for immaculately preserved colonial-era architecture to play second fiddle in a coastal New England locale, but this city, set on Aquidneck Island in tiny Rhode Island, is spoiled for riches. Pass one Gilded Age mansion after another on a tour of cliff-top Bellevue Avenue, where wealthy industrialists began constructing Italianate palazzi, French châteaux and Elizabethan manor houses in the 1850s. Learn how Newport became the 'Yachting Capital of the World' on a scenic cruise of Narragansett Bay aboard a schooner, cool cocktail in hand. Later, walk the cobblestoned paths of waterfront Thames Street past a myriad of charming shops, galleries and restaurants.

MAJESTIC FJORD & FRENCH CHARM

SAGUENAY, QUÉBEC

With your ship providing a most dramatic vantage point, take in the high, pine-studded cliffs of majestic Saguenay Fjord as you sail its entirety from the St. Lawrence River to its tip at the port city of Saguenay. CÔTE-NORD REGION FROM SEPT-ÎLES, QUÉBEC

MEETING OF NATIONS

SEPT-ÎLES, QUÉBEC

Named after the seven islands that shield its bay from stormy weather, this handsome city in the Côte-Nord region of eastern Québec has benefited from the unique contributions of European and Indigenous cultures since the 16th century. Begin this immersion into Sept-Îles history by steeping yourself in the culture of the once-nomadic Innu — Quebec's most populous First Nations people — at the Musée Le Shaputuan. Get a differing perspective at the Old Trading Post, a reconstruction of the area's first European establishment that presents re-enactments of daily life in a 19th-century fur trading post. Be dazzled afterward at the themed gardens of Jardins de l'Anse.

HIDDEN ISLES

ROSEAU, DOMINICA

Dominica has so much to offer, yet it's the lesser known treasures that will stay with you forever. One of those places is Scotts Head, a tiny peninsula named for Dominica's lieutenant governor in the 1760s. The views from this elevated finger of land are outstanding, as the peninsula divides the Caribbean Sea and the Atlantic Ocean. If it's clear, you may even catch sight of Martinique. Further afield, visit Morne Plat Pays volcanic complex. Although there hasn't been an eruption since the 13th century, volcanic heat from the complex still radiates up from the sea floor. And then for architecture buffs, there is the charming Bois Cotlette, the finest example of colonial architecture on Dominica and features the islands only windmill.

SCARBOROUGH, TRINIDAD & TOBAGO

With a deep-water harbour that was created in 1991, Scarborough is the main port city of the small island of Tobago. The city's skyline is dominated by the 18th-century Fort King George, where local history is on display at the quaint Tobago Museum. Go on a guided walk of Tobago Main Ridge Forest Reserve, one of the oldest protected rainforests in the Caribbean and a modern birder's paradise. Feel the powdery sands of Pigeon Point Beach before sampling local cuisine at a seaside bistro. Head to the picturesque fishing village of Charlotteville for a reminder of simple island life that remains vital at the remote northern end of Tobago.

CARBET WATERFALLS,
GUADELOUPE

CHASING WATERFALLS

POINTE-À-PITRE, GUADELOUPE

Witness the gorgeous cascades of Carbet Waterfalls in Guadeloupe National Park. It is the perfect reward for your hike on a winding path through the forest. Be sure to bring your camera to capture the sight of the 100-metre-high middle falls as they thunder through the jungle. The falls have long been admired. They even had a mention in Christopher Columbus' journal in 1493, when the indigenous Caribs referred to Guadeloupe as Karukera, meaning 'Island of Beautiful Waters'. If you prefer an easier walk to a waterfall, there's La Cascade aux Écrevisses (Crayfish Falls), where you can bathe under the rushing, crystalline water.

TROPICAL BLISS & DUTCH CHARM

ORANJESTAD, ARUBA

Aruba conjures images of white-sand beaches, blissfully blue waters and sweet island breezes. You'll find all of that here, as well as the cosy alleyways, candy-coloured buildings and irresistible boutiques of this small capital city. In Oranjestad, stroll the tropical gardens of Wilhelmina Park along the waterfront and discover Aruba's heritage at the Archaeological Museum of Aruba. Work up an appetite snorkelling amid the undulating colours — and occasional graceful stingray — of Aruba's coral reefs before dining on a lunch of saltfish, balchi di pisca and johnny cakes. Snap photos of the landmark California Lighthouse and tall cacti surrounding the Casibari Rock Formation.

CASTRIES, ST. LUCIA

NATURAL BEAUTY

CASTRIES, ST. LUCIA

Magnificent, lush scenery makes St. Lucia one of the most beautiful Caribbean islands. Among the natural wonders you will see on this extraordinary island are the dramatic Pitons, rising nearly 900 metres from the sea. The iconic green slopes of these pyramid-shaped mountains rising from the sapphire blue waters were deemed by UNESCO as a World Heritage site. Your journey up the misty, jungle-covered, boulder-strewn mountainside for the huge views from the top is an experience you won't soon forget. Afterwards, enjoy a sumptuous lunch of local delicacies and a refreshing swim in the majestic Caribbean Sea to complete your Castries experience.

COCKTAILS & PALM TREES

TORTOLA, BRITISH VIRGIN ISLANDS

Cruise over to White Bay on nearby Jost Van Dyke, the ultimate beach paradise for sunbathing and simply relaxing. Along the way, you'll pass several classic Caribbean islands, including St. John in the U.S. Virgin Islands. When you arrive at White Bay, your adventure in paradise begins in earnest, as you'll plunge into the crystal-clear water to get to the sugar-white shore. Spend the day lounging in a hammock strung between two palm trees, sunbathing or swimming. There's a reef at the bay's western edge that's usually teeming with blue tangs, rainbow parrot fish and other marine life. Later, enjoy a cool drink at the Soggy Dollar Bar, where the famous Painkiller cocktail was invented in the 1970s.

THE CARIBBEAN'S GREAT WALLED CITY CARTAGENA, COLOMBIA

Called the 'Corralito de Piedra' (Stone Corral) because of the 11 kilometres of huge walls that surround its atmospheric Old Town, this beautifully preserved city has a wealth of colonial architecture, cobbled alleys, massive churches and old-world heritage. Explore the Castillo San Felipe de Barajas, once the most important military structure built in Latin America. As Cartagena is almost entirely surrounded by the Caribbean Sea, several beaches can be found near the city's walls – Bocagrande and El Laguito are two of the more popular ones. Or bask in the brilliant blue waters of the Islas del Rosario, 26 coral islands off the coast of Isla Barú.

EMPORIO VILLAGE
SANTORINI, GREECE

GREEK SPLENDOUR & WORLD TREASURES

Despite the hype, Santorini astounds. You walk the narrow, cobbled streets of Oia and Fira, snow-white buildings contrasting against the blue Aegean like a modernist painting. Boutiques, restaurants, even souvenir shops beckon glamorously. In the traditional village of Pyrgos, you stop at a taverna for authentic Greek mezes that you never see, your eyes glued to this celebrated island's sun-drenched spectacle.

Santorini is but one Mediterranean destination that will challenge your ability to concentrate on anything but the beauty before you. Read on to sample Portuguese wine at an estate that dates back 700 years, walk among the Holy Land's iconic monuments, discover why Malta's capital of Valletta is a UNESCO World Heritage site, explore world-class cities like Rome, Barcelona and Athens, and more.

ANTALYA, TURKEY

RETURN OF THE EMPIRE

ANTALYA, TURKEY

Turkey is an excellent place to visit if you love the history of the Greek and Roman empires. Nestled along the coast near Antalya, explore one of the best-preserved stadiums of the ancient world, Aspendos. Constructed with intricate decorations and built for extraordinary acoustics, the theatre of Aspendos once hosted grand attractions that held 12,000 people. Even today, because of how remarkably well preserved the site is, plays and operas are still held here. Behind the theatre is a large area on the hillside, referred to as 'The Great Hill', where you can wander about and admire the many ancient ruins and the massive aqueduct.

ROME, ITALY

ETERNAL GLORY

ROME, ITALY

Regal Rome remains an epic cosmopolitan capital with piazzas and boulevards that proudly reflect the past. Start at the Colosseum, the city's most frequented archaeological site. Step through its archways and into the arena that mighty Titus inaugurated in AD 80. Follow on to the nearby ruins of the Roman Forum and Palatine Hill, the commercial, political and religious centres of ancient Rome. One of the most well-preserved buildings both inside and out is the Pantheon, built as a temple to honour the planetary gods and the burial place for certain emperors and the artist Raphael. To view more impressive monuments, spend time sipping a cappuccino at a café in the Piazza Navona, in front of the Fontana dei Quattro Fiumi.

TANGIER, MOROCCO

CONQUERORS, CAFES & CULTURES

TANGIER, MOROCCO

Experience the diverse cultures of this fascinating Moroccan city at the crossroads of Africa and Europe. An important trade centre for 2,500 years, Tangier was invaded repeatedly, and its architecture reflects Islamic, Moorish and French influences. Then observe a delightful folkloric show at a café in the world-renowned Kasbah district while enjoying pastries and mint tea, a symbol of hospitality, friendship and tradition. Travel to the mountaintop location of Cape Spartel for breathtaking views of the rugged coastline and the sapphire waters of the Strait of Gibraltar. GYTHION, GREECE

LACONIAN GULF HAVEN

GYTHION, GREECE

The former port of Sparta in antiquity lies in mainland Greece's Peloponnese region amid arid landscapes and white-sand beaches. Pastel-coloured buildings topped with red-tile roofs rise up a gentle slope from Laconic Bay, a delightful promenade of tavernas and shops reflecting in the clear water. Best known for the golden sands of four-mile-long Mavrovouni Beach, Gythion also offers the opportunity to peruse ruins from excavations of many ancient sites at an archaeological museum and an ancient hilltop theatre. Head inland for an informative and tasty dive into Greek culture at the Museum of the Olive and Greek Olive Oil, followed by a stop at a family-owned winery known for organic varietals.

As your ship approaches the island, witness first-hand why Santorini is one of the most photographed places in the world. From your suite, take in the dramatic views of classic whitewashed houses clinging perilously to the side of the caldera and stunning beaches of white and red sand or black pebbles ringing the island. Then ashore, get an up-close look at this striking landscape while swimming in the green sulphuric waters of the thermal springs at Palea Kameni. Or enjoy a swim on Kamari Beach, one of the Mediterranean's finest beaches, as its famous black sand contrasts the deep blue water.

FADRÍ TOWER & CASTELLÓ CATHEDRAL
CASTELLÓN, SPAIN

NEW

VALENCIA TRANQUILITY

CASTELLÓN, SPAIN

High hinterlands and verdant landscapes complement the beaches of this capital city along the Costa del Azahar (Orange Blossom Coast). Castellón may be quieter than other Spanish coastal destinations but offers lively squares to relax with a drink and tapas. Look for the Gothic tower of El Fadri beside Castelló Cathedral in the city's historic quarter. The medieval walled town of Peñíscola dominates a stretch of Castellón's north coast, its 13th-century castle a frequent movie setting. Set amidst the craggy mountains of the nearby Maestrazgo are the ruins of an ancient castle and medieval buildings of Ares del Maestre, another scenic wonder.

KOTOR, MONTENEGRO

MOUNT LOVCEN

KOTOR, MONTENEGRO

This well-preserved, UNESCO World Heritage site city will leave you in awe. The terrain is so unusual and strikingly beautiful that when Irish playwright George Bernard Shaw visited, he famously quipped from the top of nearby Mount Lovcen, 'Am I in paradise or on the moon?' Ascending the slopes of this revered mountain, you will come upon the village of Njegos. Perched more than 800 metres above the nearby sea, the village affords absolutely phenomenal views.

SPLIT, CROATIA

DIOCLETIAN'S PALACE

SPLIT, CROATIA

In Split, pay a visit to the retirement palace of Diocletian, deemed by UNESCO as one of the best-preserved Roman royal residences in the world. Built between AD 295 and 305, the imposing ruins of the Roman Emperor's home can be found throughout the heart of Split, the city that grew up around the palace. Diocletian spared no expense in the construction, importing marble from Italy and Greece, and columns and sphinxes from Egypt. The palace was built from lustrous white limestone from the nearby island of Brač. Within the palace boundaries are over 200 buildings, monuments, shops and restaurants, plus homes for about 3,000 people.

CINQUE TERRE, ITALY

SAVOUR LAND & SEA

CINQUE TERRE, ITALY

In Cinque Terre, delight in breathtaking views of villages that constitute this extraordinary city that has been deemed a UNESCO-protected territory. Then, pair the sights with exquisite delights. The Gulf of La Spezia is famous for growing mussels and for preparing them in a truly unique way: stuffed. The mussels are opened, the meat is split, and a savoury spoonful of stuffing made of cheese, herbs, breadcrumbs and ground mussels is placed in the shell and then simmered in tomato sauce. Cinque Terre's namesake white wine pairs perfectly with the mussels and the rest of the delicious seafood of the region.

GLEAMING CITY OF CANALS

VENICE, ITALY

Make the most of every second in a city recognised by many as the world's most beautiful. Celebrated for its ancient network of winding canals, each gleaming palace is a work of art and its most famous landmarks are legendary: St. Mark's Square, Grand Canal, Rialto Bridge, Doge's Palace, St. Mark's Basilica, Bridge of Sighs, Ponte dell'Accademia — to name only a few. Cruise on a private motor launch past Venice's most picturesque islands. Attend a baroque recital at the 16th-century Scuola Grande di San Teodoro. Or, naturally, experience the quintessentially Venetian pleasure of a serenaded gondola ride that concludes at Piazza San Marco.

TUSCAN TREAT

PORTO SANTO STEFANO, ITALY

Candy-coloured buildings clutter the laid-back promenade of this seaside town in southern Tuscany. Trek to the hills overlooking Porto Santo Stefano for views of the Tuscan archipelago – Giglio, Montecristo and Elba – from the peaceful, 18th-century Convento dei Frati Passionisti. Travel to Tuscany's famed landscape of vineyards, olive groves and fields of golden grain to visit a traditional working farm that produces organic cheeses, olive oils and wine, all of which you'll have the chance to sample. Drive inland to explore Tuscany's history at Vulci Nature and Archaeological Park, where you may roam among artefacts from an Etruscan town that includes a necropolis with tombs from 2,700 years ago.

AEGEAN ALLURE

SKIATHOS, GREECE

Pine-forested mountains slope to some of Greece's most dazzling, white-sand beaches on this popular island in the Sporades. A total of 60 beaches ring the island, with Koukounaries and Banana luring the biggest crowds. The island's main port is Skiathos Town, where an assortment of restaurants and tavernas beckon along narrow, whitewashed alleys. Explore the remains of the island's medieval capital of Kastro, abandoned since 1830 but once a pirate-proof village. Head north to the 18th-century Monastery of Panagia Evangelistria, where Greek revolutionaries found shelter and support in the 1820s. Dine on seafood and horta (wild greens) and spiral-shaped tiropita (cheese pie).

CELEBRATED RUINS & SANDY BLISS

DIDIM, TURKEY

This 'Gateway to the Land of Oracles' on the Aegean coast of western Turkey is most famous as the site of the Temple of Apollo in the village of Didyma, once home to the most influential oracle after Delphi. Further ruins may be explored at the ancient Ionian cities of Miletus and Priene, north of Didim, plus the historic site known as the house of the Virgin Mary. Modern Didim's status as a holiday resort is reflected in the names of its districts: Altinkum (Golden Sand), Gumuskum (Silver Sand) and Sarkum (Yellow Sand). Settle in for meze (hors d'oeuvres) and a cool drink at one of Didim's relaxed cafés.

NATURAL WONDERLAND

ZADAR, CROATIA

Zadar is the gateway to Croatia's greatest natural wonders. Visit Krka National Park, a wonderland of dense forests, wild rivers and thundering waterfalls, in particular Skradinski Buk, a long series of cascades that spill over countless travertine rock formations. For a dramatic contrast, head north toward the Island of Pag known for a lunar-like landscape that's home to 30,000 sheep. In addition, Pag has long been associated with intricate lacework, recognised by UNESCO's Cultural Heritage list.

CORSICAN BEAUTY

AJACCIO, FRANCE

Surrounded by green-hued mountains, with shady, palm-fringed squares and pleasure boats bobbing in the bay, Ajaccio offers you a pleasing number of sites to explore. First on your list should be the stunning Prunelli Gorges and its deep-red granite cliffs that plunge into a river. And don't miss the opportunity to get a glimpse of the Bonaparte family home, including the room Napoleon is said to have stayed in for the last time on his way back to France from Egypt. Also witness the Sanguinaires, named after the colour they exhibit at sunset when the last rays of the sun illuminate sheer granite cliffs and peaks.

ROME, ITALY

Regal Rome remains an epic cosmopolitan capital with piazzas and boulevards that proudly reflect the past. Start at the Colosseum, the city's most frequented archaeological site. Step through its archways and into the arena that mighty Titus inaugurated in AD 80. Follow on to the nearby ruins of the Roman Forum and Palatine Hill, the commercial, political and religious centres of ancient Rome. One of the most well-preserved buildings both inside and out is the Pantheon, built as a temple to honour the planetary gods and the burial place for certain emperors and the artist Raphael. To view more impressive monuments, spend time sipping a cappuccino at a café in the Piazza Navona, in front of the Fontana dei Quattro Fiumi.

MELILLA, SPAIN

One of two autonomous Spanish cities on the Moroccan coast (the other is Ceuta, near Gibraltar), this former fortress stronghold boasts a staggering architectural heritage. Get your bearings at Plaza de España, home to a striking fountain and art-deco monument. The preserved Citadel, also known as Melilla la Vieja, consists of four imposing enclosures separated by a moat. A Gaudí apprentice named Enrique Nieto is credited with inspiring the city's collection of modernist buildings, a legacy of curved structures with natural motifs found in the city's Golden Triangle. Reap the benefits of Melilla's location by dining on a fusion of Mediterranean, European and African cuisine.

SCENIC FINLAND

HELSINKI, FINLAND

Helsinki's harbour is a delightful maze of islands, dotted with historical sites. This one-of-a-kind urban archipelago boasts waterfront saunas, old villas and the city zoo. You can always spot giant icebreakers basking in the summer light, as if on a well-deserved holiday after months of carving out the path to the port during the winter. Among the most iconic landmarks you'll see is Suomenlinna, an 18th-century fortress so impressive that it has been deemed a UNESCO World Heritage site. This remarkable, turf-covered citadel straddles several small islands and once reigned as the Baltic's most powerful sea fortress.

FROM FISHGUARD, WALES

COASTAL SPLENDOUR OF PEMBROKESHIRE

FISHGUARD, WALES

From the charming town of Fishguard, take a leisurely drive through the wild and incredibly beautiful landscape of Pembrokeshire in western Wales. Along one of the most picturesque sections of the Pembrokeshire Coast Path, a spectacular road through the UK's only coastal national park, marvel at an array of weather-worn cliffs, secret coves and dazzling beaches. Watch for birds like cormorants, puffins and shearwaters nesting in the clifftops, and seals and dolphins frolicking offshore. Admire the proud Strumble Head Lighthouse on tiny St. Michael's Island, first lit in 1908, and peruse the shops of a small fishing village before driving back to your ship.

CASTLE IN THE CLOUDS

EDINBURGH, SCOTLAND

Take in the spectacular Edinburgh Castle sitting atop an outcrop of sheer granite cliffs. It anchors one end of the famed Royal Mile, an area approximately 1.6 kilometres long that extends down to Holyrood Palace, the former official residence of the late Queen Elizabeth II. As you crisscross the streets in this phenomenally scenic Old Town, you will get a sense of what life here was like centuries ago. The streets are busy, narrow and lined with towering buildings Edinburgh-born Robert Louis Stevenson once described as 'a dream in masonry'.

PRISTINE WILDERNESS & NUUK CHARM

NUUK, GREENLAND

The largest city in Greenland, Nuuk is home to the country's only institution of higher learning, the University of Greenland, as well as the Greenland National Museum. Even so, Nuuk only has about 15,000 residents, so you will still find the small-town charm embraced by pristine wilderness that makes this remote country so enchanting. Homes and buildings are painted in a range of bright colours, and, of course, the wondrous natural surroundings draw many visitors from beyond its shores. Encounter soaring eagles, humpback whales and frolicking seals on a boat tour where you may even have the chance to climb atop an iceberg for a quick photo.

AN EXTRAORDINARY GATEWAY

HAMBURG, GERMANY

A maritime spirit infuses Germany's largest port city, but it's the architecture, culinary diversity and extensive network of Venice-like canals that make Hamburg extraordinary. Stroll the Jungfernstieg shopping promenade along the shimmering Alster Lakes and cobblestoned streets of the 19th-century Speicherstadt (Warehouse District). Admire several centuries of art at the Hamburger Kunsthalle. Get serious about your sweet tooth at an interactive chocolate museum. Go for a drive along the Reeperbahn, where the Fab Four performed as the 'Silver Beatles' in the early '60s. Outside of Hamburg, traverse the medieval gates of Lübeck's UNESCO-listed town centre before hoisting a stein at the historic Brauburger zu Lübeck.

ENGAGING & UNSPOILED

SANTANDER, SPAIN

Framed by green, mountainous landscapes and white beaches, you'll quickly ease your pace at this picturesque bayside city in Spain's Cantabria region. Built atop a glorious peninsula and used as a summer residence by Spanish royals in the early 20th century, the Magdalena Palace offers a taste of history and panoramic views of Santander Bay. Centro Botín, which reinvigorated the city's seafront upon its opening in 2017, has been described as 'Santander's Guggenheim' — a nod to the Frank Gehry-designed museum in nearby Bilbao. In the city's fishing district, dine on traditional local cuisine such as rabas (fried squid), maganos (squid with onion) or fisherman-style clams.

SAGA ISLANDS

ÅLESUND, NORWAY

From Ålesund, traverse a network of bridges and tunnels to explore two neighbouring islands with deep Viking roots. First is Giske, the birthplace of the great Viking King Rollo. Legend has it, he was so great that no horse could carry him. His action-packed life included conquering Norway, ruling the French region of Normandy, and being the ancestor of William the Conqueror, sire to the English royal family. Then there's the steeply mountainous Godøy, its ancient name derived from words that mean 'Island of Gods'. Stroll through the remote fishing village of Alnes, its red-and-white striped lighthouse bravely facing down the open Atlantic.

ATLANTIC PUFFINS
HEIMAÆY, ICELAND

NEW

VOLCANIC GRANDEUR

HEIMAÆY, ICELAND

This small, vibrant isle is the largest of Iceland's Westman Islands and hosts the largest nesting population of Atlantic puffins anywhere in the world. The waters around this volcanic locale are often ideal for spotting various marine life, including orcas and fin whales. In January 1973, a vast fissure burst open, creating a new volcano called Eldfell that buried 400 buildings and provided enough geothermal energy to heat Heimaey for nine years. Exhibits at the Eldheimar Museum provide more eruption details, though the greatest exhibit of all is the 220-metres-high volcano itself. You'll also find a 15th-century harbour fort, a world-class aquarium and a folk museum.

MODERN & MEDIEVAL

NANTES, FRANCE

Despite lying 90 kilometres east of the Atlantic Ocean, this modern home of spectacular art museums, technical innovation and beaucoup culture was France's foremost port until the 19th century. Hence, you'll find 400 years of stunning medieval architecture and parks in the city centre, much of it restored following World War II. Gain insight into Nantes' rich history at the imposing 15th-century Château des Ducs de Bretagne, built when the city was the capital of Brittany. Les Machines de l'Île de Nantes and its 11-metre-high mechanical elephant must be experienced, as must a glass of Muscadet from the nearby Loire Valley.

MAJESTY OF THE EASTFJORDS

DJUPIVOGUR, ICELAND

Here in Iceland's sparsely populated Eastfjords, the small coastal village of Djupivogur offers something magical: Mt. Bulandstindur, a pyramid-shaped basalt mountain peaking at 1,069 metres that's widely believed to be a focus of mystical forces. Nestled by the picturesque fjord of Hamarsfjordur, the town was a trading centre as far back as 1589. Visit a historic timber building called Langabud, constructed in 1790, to admire the sculptures of Djupivogur's own Rikardur Jonsson (1888 – 1977). Take a boat tour to the island of Papey — named after Irish hermits who sailed to Iceland in the 7th and 8th centuries — to see a colony of Atlantic puffins.

Trace Vlissingen's eventful history at the Zeeland Maritime MuZEEum and upon monuments found throughout the town. Learn about Zeeland's disastrous 1953 flood at a museum housed in four massive caissons that closed a hole in a dike. FROM NORTH CAPE, NORWAY

PUFFIN SAFARI IN ARCTIC NORWAY

NORTH CAPE, NORWAY

From the town of Honningsvåg south of North Cape — known as Nordkapp, the northernmost point in Europe — embark on a remarkable excursion to an Arctic version of bird paradise. Travel due west across Magerøya Island's barren but beautiful terrain to the fishing village of Gjesvær, a trading post since the Middle Ages. Board a birdwatching vessel for a short boat trip to Gjesværstappan, a nature reserve spread over a group of islands 14 kilometres offshore and home to almost a million puffins which nest in holes along the steep, turf-covered shoreline. You'll also see numerous northern gannets, cormorants, kittiwakes, common guillemots and northern fulmars.

RIO DE JANEIRO, BRAZIL

DAZZLING RIO & LATIN ENCHANTMENT

You were prepared to be awestruck in Rio de Janeiro. High up in a cable car, the city's staggering tableau of mountains, forest and sea left you breathless. Your view from beneath Rio's towering landmark, the Christ the Redeemer statue, was both glorious and dizzying. What truly set your heart afire, however, were the deliriously tiled Selarón Steps, a humble artwork inspired by — and dedicated to — the people of Brazil.

No place on earth dazzles more than the Cidade Maravilhosa ('Marvellous City'), but you'll find similar enchantment throughout South America. Read on for explorations of the Galapagos Islands and Machu Picchu, a trek to the San Rafael Glacier in southern Chile, a chance to feel the spray of World Heritage-listed Iguazú Falls, and more.

SALVADOR, BRAZIL

THE HISTORIC CHARM OF SALVADOR

SALVADOR, BRAZIL

As the oldest and most historic city in Brazil, Salvador is renowned for its deeply rooted Afro-Brazilian culture. With an amazing number of magnificent Baroque, colonial-style churches, Salvador has been nicknamed the 'Black Rome'. Tour the UNESCO-listed Upper Town on foot, where cobbled streets lead you to the statuesque 17th-century Cathedral Basilica, then on to the Church of São Francisco, encrusted with adornment inside and out. Visit the Mercado Modelo for local handicrafts and souvenirs and peruse the numerous museums located in the Cidade Alta. Capture the spectacular panoramic views of All Saints Bay while admiring the 1698 Fortress of San Antonio and its colossal rooftop lighthouse.

PUERTO MONTT, CHILE

The first German colonists arrived in this area in 1852, and their descendants have remained a small but influential part of its population to the present day. The town of Puerto Montt stretches along a narrow seaboard and climbs the slopes enclosing it to the north. Since 1985, the city has experienced considerable growth and development, due largely to a flourishing salmon-farming industry as well as forestry, fishing and other service companies. As a gateway to Chile's picturesque lakes and spectacular indigo mountains, Puerto Montt offers a variety of outdoor activities such as hiking, river rafting and horseback riding through the remarkably biodiverse Valdivian temperate rainforest.

SOUTH PACIFIC

TO

BORA BORA & BLISSFUL BLUE WATERS

Your eyes have finally adjusted to the turquoise, cobalt and indigo that swirl beneath you as you fly above this breathtaking locale on an unforgettable helicopter tour. As you soar past Mount Otemanu, it seems to watch over the lagoons and palm-decorated islets spread before it, no doubt pleased with its resemblance to an impressionist's painting of tropical perfection.

Returning to earth, you ponder snorkelling among the vivid schools of fish that dart in every direction or perhaps going off-road for more adventure in the verdant, tropical terrain. As you're on the verge of a decision, a frangipani-scented breeze rustles the palm fronds, producing a sound so soothing it stops you and your travel companion from doing anything but enjoying this blissful Bora Bora moment together.

Read on for more dreamlike destinations in the South Pacific.

MOOREA, FRENCH POLYNESIA

POLYNESIAN PARADISE

MOOREA, FRENCH POLYNESIA

Often likened to James Michener's mythical island of Bali Hai, Moorea is only 17 kilometres from Tahiti and offers an island charm all its own. The pristine azure waters of Cook's Bay and Opunohu Bay seem almost illuminated, beckoning visitors to don a mask and snorkel and explore the lively coral reefs below. For those who prefer excitement on land, an off-road safari will take you through the island's mountains and valleys to visit sacred ancient sites, panoramic lookouts and several pineapple plantations. Relax and unwind during a scenic and informative, downhill walking tour where you will encounter Moorea's botanical and agricultural beauty and learn more about Polynesian history and culture.

HORTA,
PORTUGAL

WELCOME TO THE AZORES

HORTA, PORTUGAL

Experience the Azores, an archipelago in the North Atlantic Ocean where unique island adventures await. Observe the picturesque windmills and beautiful blue hydrangeas as you enjoy a panoramic drive up the island, then marvel at the 1.5-kilometre-wide Caldeira crater, which was left by the now-extinct volcano that created the island of Faial. Venture out on a safari in a rigid inflatable boat for a chance to see whales and dolphins, and then return to land where you may be lucky enough to encounter an Azores bullfinch — one of Europe's rarest birds. Visit popular spots such as Republica Square, stroll by the marina and pop into the legendary Peter Café Sport — a lovely restaurant, scrimshaw museum and post office.

A NATURAL HISTORY

FUNCHAL, PORTUGAL

Past the Mercado dos Lavradores — an art-deco style market selling a plethora of goods from fresh produce to seafood to freshly picked flowers — and beyond the beautiful, 15th-century-era Old Town of Funchal lies the largest surviving laurel forest on Madeira Island. This living legacy, Laurisilva, is recognised as a natural World Heritage site. A genuinely ancient forest dating back two million years to the Tertiary Period, it offers a glimpse into how the earth may have looked before humanity's arrival.

JACOB'S LADDER

JAMESTOWN, SAINT HELENA

A proposed UNESCO World Heritage site, St. Helena's charm lies in its dramatic coastline. The capital, Jamestown, founded in 1659 by the East India Company, is a small enclave sandwiched between imposing cliffs and offers some of the finest examples of British Georgian-era Colonial architecture. Visitors who bring a sense of adventure as well as comfortable walking shoes can take the opportunity to ascend Jacob's Ladder. Built in 1829 and still in use today, this famous landmark offers exquisite vistas from its apex as a reward to those who are willing to climb all 699 steps. Visit the museum and gardens at Longwood House, the renowned site where Napoleon spent his final years in exile before death.

BEACHSIDE BLISS

BÚZIOS, BRAZIL

Just 170 kilometres from Rio de Janeiro, the tiny village of Búzios is considered to be among the most beautiful spots in the world. Now an international resort known as the Saint-Tropez of Brazil, this once sleepy fishing village burst into prominence when Brigitte Bardot visited here in the 1960s. Today, a statue of the young French actress and unofficial 'discoverer' of Búzios stands looking out to sea on the Orla Bardot. Búzios boasts some of South America's most magnificent beaches, secluded coves and pristine waters, ideal for lounging in the warm tropical breezes and sipping delicious caipirinhas. When it's time for a change of pace, wander along Rua das Pedras for boutiques, cafés and galleries.
