SUMMER 2027 CRUISES

ONE HORIZON, MULTIPLE INTERPRETATIONS

Iceberg or lagoon? At first glance, it is hard to guess where the photograph opening this new brochure was taken. It could just as easily belong to the far reaches of the Arctic as it could to the shores of the Mediterranean. Two destinations that we cherish, each in its own way.

One, because it has been part of us for a long time. From Iceland to the North Pole aboard Le Commandant Charcot, and all the way to Greenland, this region has seen the Company chart its course. Season after season, we have forged deep bonds with its communities and aimed for a more responsible way of exploring the polar world.

The other, because it is the birthplace of PONANT EXPLORATIONS. From the Andalusian coast to the Cyclades, the Mediterranean beckons us to explore a mosaic of histories and cultures. More than 60 sailings will be available in the region during the summer of 2027, revealing all its nuances.

This season is also an opportunity to spend the summer in the countryside with a unique tour of Ireland, a new itinerary for the Azores to capture its essence, and island-hopping odysseys in Polynesia, Indonesia and the Philippines. Not forgetting getaways with Aqua Expeditions, a pioneer in experiential travel, which joined the Group in early 2025. The programme includes authentic river immersions along the Mekong and the Amazon, and explorations in the Galápagos, Eastern Indonesia, Svalbard, or to the Seychelles and Tanzania.

These explorations will be accompanied by some of our top-class partners to bring you special unforgettable moments, including behind-the-scenes immersions with five iconic Italian luxury Houses – Gucci, Bottega Veneta, Pomellato, Ginori 1735 and Brioni – cultural and historical experiences with Smithsonian Journeys, a sunset ‘pas de deux’ performed by artists from the Paris Opera Ballet and gastronomic dinners crafted by Ducasse Paris. So many ‘journeys within the journey’, nourishing that state of reverie we so love to share with you, sailing after sailing.

And so to the mysterious cover photo... Arctic or Mediterranean? It was taken in Greece.

to sail with

PONANT EXPLORATIONS

1. The art of TRAVELLING

Each season, we design meaningful trips based on major themes.

This summer season 2027, Culture, Lifestyle and Alliances are coming on board thanks to our renowned partners, represented by artists, artisans and renowned chefs.

Through exclusive experiences never before offered to the public, go behind the scenes at five Italian luxury Houses – Gucci, Bottega Veneta, Brioni, Pomellato, and Ginori 1735 – attend performances by dancers from the Paris Opera Ballet, or enjoy gourmet dinners with chefs from Ducas Paris.

2. The art of LIVING

On board, enjoy the comfort and refined design of the common areas conceived by internationally renowned architects, Studio Jean-Philippe Nuel and Wilmotte & Associés.

From hotel and restaurant managers to serving staff of all levels, not forgetting reception hosts, cabin attendants and butlers, the whole crew is ready and willing to lavish the care and attention required to ensure your peace of mind.

Spas work hand-in-hand with renowned brands (Clarins, Biologique Recherche, Sothys, Algotharm), and warm and friendly restaurants and bars await you.

The theatre is also ideal for film screenings, conferences and shows.

3. A REFINED cuisine

Delight your palate with a refined cuisine, developed in collaboration with Ducasse Conseil. On the menu you will find generous breakfasts, à la carte dishes and diverse buffets, home-made pastries, bread prepared on board, along with a range of gourmet afternoon teas and luxury products.

Our offer is evolving on Le Commandant Charcot thanks to the Nuna, Alain Ducasse's only gastronomic restaurant at sea, with a menu created by the Michelin-starred chef.

4. A MODERN fleet

As one of the few cruise companies to sail under the French flag, one of the safest in the world, we adhere to strict specifications regarding the training of our crews and compliance with health and safety protocols, and regular checks on our vessels.

Our modestly sized ships have just 4 to 165 staterooms and are equipped with the most advanced technologies.

5. High-level EXPERTISE

Our experts have been exploring the world in search of natural and cultural wonders for more than 35 years. Each trip is designed as part of a collection – Timeless, Discovery or Expedition – each with a distinct approach, so you can experience the destination of your choice in the manner that best fits your desires.

6. Working towards more RESPONSIBLE tourism

By way of our Foundation and our PONANT Blue Horizon and PONANT Science programmes, we strive to reduce our environmental footprint on terrestrial and marine environments (hybrid propulsion, recycling and waste and water treatment, elimination of single-use plastics, etc.).

With laboratories available to science teams on board Le Commandant Charcot, we contribute to international scientific research. Sustainable development also shapes the knowledge we share with our guests, who are the ambassadors of each region we visit.

7. CONSCIOUS travels

In the Arctic and the Antarctic, we are members of IAATO and AECO: associations that bring together different stakeholders in the polar regions to promote more responsible tourism. We have also made commitments at an international level, and are proud to be part of the UN programme to ban single-use plastics.

We have earned numerous accreditations as a result of our actions, and our entire fleet has been awarded Cleanship certification by Bureau Veritas.

Check out all our actions on our website.

8. TAILOR-MADE journeys

With our 'à la carte' service, you can book private excursions, hotel nights or flights with the help of your dedicated advisors or travel agency. For certain hard-to-reach destinations, we offer private flights and land transportation to ensure your safe and serene arrival at the port of embarkation.

Finally, download the PONANT app, and let us guide you during the preparation of your trip, then throughout your time on board.

THE ARCTIC AND NORTH AMERICA

*Green valleys or icy lands:
take in all the shades of the northern landscapes.*

The story of the world told through ice

An emblematic figure in the Company, Étienne Garcia has been sailing the polar seas for more than two decades at the helm of various ships. This is the testimony of a sailor who, from Disko Bay to the legendary Northwest Passage, never ceases to marvel at this world of ice.

Étienne Garcia
Captain

“The ships L’Austral, Le Boréal, Le Soléal and Le Lyrial were conceived with the intention of offering the experience of expedition, without sacrificing comfort. What sets them apart is also the atmosphere on board, infused with a distinctly French elegance – relaxed, yet always exacting. As the English say, this ‘secret sauce’, combining refinement, warmth and professionalism, makes travelling with PONANT EXPLORATIONS unlike anything else.

“The Northwest Passage? It is impossible not to reach for superlatives to describe this experience. It is iconic, emblematic; it truly belongs to the realm of the initiatory, following in the wake of Roald Amundsen. Once there, you really feel this historical, almost spiritual dimension. This is one of the reasons why we prefer routes centred on the heart of the Passage, where the wildlife and landscapes are at their richest and most intense.

“Disko Bay? It is a symphony of ice. Icebergs are born there, break apart and drift away in a constant, magnetic spectacle. But what touches me the most is the people of Greenland. We have known them for more than 20 years and have built a genuine relationship with them. These kinds of bonds cannot be invented. I remember one evening in Kullorsuaq, where we improvised a bonfire and a big buffet on the beach with the villagers. Icebergs drifted around us, children played and drew hearts in the sand, guests and inhabitants ‘spoke’ to each other through the universal language of friendship: a scene that was both simple and joyful, yet so deeply emotional. Unforgettable...”

The purple pitcher plant

The floral emblem of Newfoundland and Labrador lures its prey with its nectar: insects slip along the wax-coated edges of its pitcher-shaped leaves and fall into rainwater pooled at the bottom. Trapped, they cannot admire its single annual bloom, with its star-shaped green pistil.

Icelandic meanderings

The delicate prose of Auður Ava Ólafsdóttir evokes the landscapes of her island and the mercurial nature of its people, imbued with a distinctly boreal poetry. Since Rosa Candida, she has gracefully conveyed her art of simplicity and wonder. Perhaps because in Iceland, the ordinary often borders on the exceptional.

The cetaceans of Tadoussac

In summer, the bay of the Saguenay Fjord welcomes an astonishing diversity of marine mammals: blue, fin and minke whales, humpbacks, porpoises and grey seals come to feed there before heading towards warmer waters. The belugas then remain alone in the estuary.

Itinerary: Exploration along Saint Lawrence, p. 29

Fifty shades of ice

It's a matter of physics: the colour of an object depends on how it absorbs or reflects sunlight.

Composed of frozen water and air bubbles, ice absorbs the longer wavelengths, red and yellow, and reflects the shorter ones, green and blue. In a young glacier, the bubbles scatter all colours of the spectrum, giving it a white appearance. Blue tones indicate ancient ice, freed of its air and containing nothing but water molecules.

THE ARCTIC ABOARD LE COMMANDANT CHARCOT

Soft powder or crunchy crystals:
immerse yourself in the heart of the moving ice floe

Le Commandant Charcot

The one and only ship in the world to take you beyond exploration

1. Reaching the inaccessible

Le Commandant Charcot is the world's only passenger ship... equipped with a Polar Class 2 (PC2) hull. By way of comparison, the most powerful ships are classified as PC1, and there are no passenger ships of this kind.

You thus benefit... from sailing in multi-year ice, inaccessible to other ships, for much of the year.

2. Exclusivity, expertise and immersion

Le Commandant Charcot is the world's only passenger ship... capable of navigating the heart of the ice floe in search of the geographic and magnetic North Poles, or of reaching isolated Inuit communities at the end of winter.

You thus benefit... from a true immersion in the heart of inaccessible territories, between ice and icebergs, thanks to a host of activities – dog sledding, snowshoe hiking, ice fishing, kayaking, meetings with local communities – supervised by local guides or the team of naturalist guides who are experts in the destination.

On some departures, a renowned Photo Ambassador will lead workshops and conferences, offering personalised advice on how to get the best out of your shots.

3. An invisible frontier

Le Commandant Charcot is the world's only passenger ship... to offer staterooms and suites, all with balconies or terraces, and common areas that are largely open to the outside, all a guarantee of the highest level of comfort and safety in the polar environment.

You thus benefit... from a total connection with the grandiose surrounding landscapes, from every part of the ship, including the spa, the indoor pool or the various lounges and restaurants.

4. Gastronomy by Alain Ducasse

Le Commandant Charcot is the world's only passenger ship... to offer Alain Ducasse's cuisine at sea, and in such isolated regions, in the gastronomic restaurant Nuna (the Earth, in Inuit).

You thus benefit... from a menu devised by the Michelin-starred chef, as well as some of his signature dishes, while enjoying refined tableware that attains a level of excellence unrivalled in the polar regions.

5. More respectful sailings

Le Commandant Charcot is the world's only passenger ship... to incorporate a number of the most advanced technologies, combining electric propulsion and liquefied natural gas, aimed at reducing its environmental footprint as much as possible. It also has two research laboratories, open to international scientists, on behalf of renowned research institutes including Ifremer, GEOMAR and the Alfred Wegener Institute.

You thus benefit... from an understanding, in situ, of the issues encountered in the regions visited, due to exchanges with researchers.

The ship is Green Globe certified, the internationally recognised benchmark for sustainable tourism.

A wilder, more authentic world

Expedition leader aboard Le Commandant Charcot and passionate about the great outdoors, Eli Gunnemark guides guests to the heart of Greenland's east coast, where nature sets the pace and no other ship can go so early in the season.

Eli Gunnemark
Expedition leader aboard
Le Commandant Charcot

"Navigating through ice is like travelling through space. The silence, the light, the reflections... You lose all your bearings. You float in another world. The more time you spend on the ice floe, the more you understand its shades: its texture, its density, the history it carries. It is a living landscape that speaks to us, if we know how to listen.

"East Greenland is a world apart. Wilder, more isolated, more real. There, villages like Tasiilaq and Kuummiut still live to the rhythm of nature, sledding and hunting. Nothing is staged. Everything has remained deeply human. It is this authenticity that I love to share with guests: the feeling of touching something unspoilt.

"Being an expedition leader means venturing into the unknown every day. Here, nothing is ever set in stone. The ice moves, the winds change, the maps fade. We set off with a plan A, a plan B... and often, we invent a plan C. That's what exploration is all about: listening to the territory, sensing what it allows us to do. That raw, rare freedom reminds me why I chose this profession. What I'm looking for are those pure moments when everything stops. A bear approaching the ship, a sunset at midnight, the mist rising over a frozen fjord... Moments when I think of nothing else. Just being there, fully present. Those moments stay with you forever. And when the guests leave, I hope they take that intimate connection with the Arctic with them."

The spirit of the tupilak

Shaped by Inuit sorcerers, strange, half-human, half-animal creatures exist at the crossroads between worlds. Its influence is thought to reach far beyond polar waters, its family being present in every ocean.

Sedna, goddess of the seas

An Inuit legend tells that her beauty was matched only by her tempestuous nature, no doubt inherited from her father who, in the midst of a storm, cut off her fingers. Sedna's severed phalanges then gave birth to the creatures of the sea. Since then, to appease her anger, the shamans brush the hair of the mother of the deep, which she cannot untangle on her own.

A serene summer in the heart of the Azores

In her role as architect of PONANT EXPLORATIONS itineraries and Director of Cruise Research and Development, Sylviane de Tracy set out to explore the soul of the Azores in search of an authentic, unspoilt summer destination. Here, she shares the secrets of an archipelago untouched by the clamour of the world.

Sylviane de Tracy
Director of Cruise Research
and Development

“My role? To turn an adventure of the imagination into a reality beyond compare. It’s not just about validating logistics, but about capturing the spirit of a place and revealing what makes it unique. We were looking for an alternative to Mediterranean summers for our guests seeking something a little fresher. The Azores quickly became the obvious answer. These islands remain profoundly authentic, their heartbeat still shaped by fishing and agriculture. A rare tranquillity, a wonderfully gentle climate and blooming landscapes all offer a true breath of fresh air along an Atlantic coast.

“The archipelago is best explored on foot to really appreciate it. The guiding principle of this trip is to prioritise hiking for a fully immersive experience. We walk through the vineyards of Pico, criss-crossed by a lattice of lava-stone walls built to shield the vines from the wind and to capture moisture. On São Jorge, we venture into the heart of the incredible fajãs, strips of fertile land formed by lava flows or landslides. The exploration continues out at sea during a whale-watching excursion, at the point where the Gulf Stream meets the cold currents from the north. The voyage then leads to the legendary port of Horta on Faial, a mythical, cosmopolitan harbour and point of convergence for sailors from around the world.

“And finally, there is one ritual to root you forever into Azorean life, and it comes in the form of a simple ladder inviting you to descend into the ocean to bathe in one of the natural pools carved directly into the volcanic rock. It’s a simple luxury, an authentic experience that we absolutely wanted to share with our guests.”

It is customary to add an 'e' to the word whisky when it is Irish. From field to glass: the spirit must be produced on the island. Uisce beatha – its Gaelic name – undergoes a three-stage distillation process that makes it sweeter and fruitier than its rival, Scotch malt.

The sea, my own evidance

Le Boréal will set sail in August 2027 guided by the rhythm of the dance steps of some great figures of the Paris Opera Ballet. Among them is Amandine Albisson, named principal dancer following a performance of Onegin in 2014. As a native of Marseille, she has always had a close bond with the sea.

Amandine Albisson
Principal dancer
of the Paris Opera Ballet

“Joining the Paris Opera Ballet School at the age of 10 was already a childhood dream come true. But being named a principal dancer was a whirlwind of emotions that I will never forget. What an honour, but also what a responsibility! Because, while this status allows access to more roles, it also means being watched even more closely.

“The sea, like dance, has always been a part of my life. When I was younger and went back to Marseille every weekend, I always dedicated some of my time to it. It was, and still is, necessary and impossible to ignore. The sea recentres me, soothes me, inspires me.

“I’m looking forward to going aboard Le Boréal because this cruise will be one of discovery. Travelling along the Spanish Basque coast has a real meaning for me: my paternal grandmother was born near Bilbao. This trip will therefore also be an opportunity to reconnect with my roots.

“On board, we will be able to create a more direct relationship with guests through conversations before and after the performances. When we dance on stage, the experience is more fleeting. I am also looking forward to explaining our work, to share the emotions that dance can evoke.

“I hope to offer the guests a timeless moment, like an echo of the sea’s fluidity. Dance and the ocean share this perpetual motion, a lightness that can carry everything away. Dancing over the water will be a first for me, but perhaps the most beautiful way to bring together two things I love above all else.”

THE MEDITERRANEAN

*Azure waves or bathed in light:
dive into the heart of Mediterranean waters.*

The Mediterranean at heart

Affectionately known as “the memory of PONANT”, German Amaya has been crafting cruise itineraries since the inception of the Company, leaving his native Colombia more than half a century ago to explore Europe, and has never stopped travelling the world since. Today he explains how the Mediterranean Sea has shaped the very DNA of PONANT EXPLORATIONS.

German Amaya
Cruise designer

“It was in 1993 that Le Ponant sailed the Mediterranean for the first time. In 2005, the Company established its headquarters in Marseille, a symbolic city of true maritime heritage. Marseille and the whole of the Mediterranean alike provide a wellspring of inspiration for PONANT EXPLORATIONS, and a defining part of its essence for more than 30 years.

“From antiquity, this sea, unlike any other, facilitated cultural and commercial exchanges between Persians, Phoenicians, Carthaginians, Etruscans, Greeks, Romans and Berbers. As an economic powerhouse, it was a meeting place between civilisations and religions, and continues to forge fundamental connections that echo the values of the Company. To turn away from the Mediterranean would be to turn away from culture itself, so rich is it in traditions, landscapes, gastronomy and music. We have more than 200 calls there, each with its own distinct identity: from Spanish and Italian ports to the islands of the Cyclades, from the allure of the Maghreb in Tunis, Annaba or Algiers, to the jewels of the Adriatic, such as the Bay of Kotor. Every traveller can find their own point of connection, feed their curiosity and live a thousand and one experiences.

“Over the years, the face of the Mediterranean has also changed, driven by major geopolitical movements. Thus, we have had to bid farewell to certain destinations, including countries of the Middle East we were fortunate to explore, and guide our guests towards new horizons. In 2027, our ships will once again call at Marseille, adding to our Mediterranean story.”

In the Mediterranean, every island tells a story.

Itineraries p. 64–65, 67–71 and 74–77

Tangier through the eyes of artists

The unique aura of the white city has inspired many artists. Among them was Eugène Delacroix, in 1832, whose journey was almost initiatory: the hundred or so drawings and watercolours he produced paved the way for the Orientalists. Nearly a century later, Henri Matisse captured the soul of the city with a blue and ochre-dominated palette in his Moroccan Triptych.

Itinerary: Iberian Peninsula and Morocco, p. 67

The citrus fruits of the Mare nostrum

The rim of the Tyrrhenian Sea is dotted with rare fruits: the sfusato lemon, endemic to the Amalfi Coast, the tangy, oval limone of Sorrento, the sun-drenched Syracuse lemon, the delicate Calabrian bergamot, the small Corsican calamondin, the very chic caviar lemon (also known as finger lime) and the remarkable Buddha's Hand, cousin of the citron.

Itineraries: Italian shores and Isle of Beauty and Jewels of the Italian coastlines, p. 70

This is the number of nuraghi in Sardinia.

These structures, built 3,800 years ago, are the memory of a forgotten people. Defensive towers, ritual sites, or rural Bronze Age settlements? The enigmatic megaliths guard their secrets, but attest to the exceptional ingenuity of a civilisation that vanished with the arrival of the Phoenicians.

Itineraries: Spring awakening on the Mediterranean, p. 65; Mediterranean shores, p. 67

Primitivo, the wine of Puglia

Originally from Croatia, the grape took root in Italy in the 18th century. Since then, the early-ripening wine, with its garnet hue, has won over oenologists and gastronomes. Its aromas of ripe berries, chocolate and spices pair perfectly with local cuisine. Its acidity complements tomato, while its supple tannins balance Parmesan or Gorgonzola.

Philippines: the archipelago revisited

After 10 years, PONANT EXPLORATIONS is returning to the Philippines. This provided an opportunity for Sylviane de Tracy, Director of Cruise Research and Development, to take stock of an archipelago replete with contrasts, where sovereign nature blends with the profound kindness of its people. Here she gives us an account of her scouting trip.

Sylviane de Tracy
Director of Cruise Research
and Development

“To shape this Philippine itinerary, it was first necessary to understand how the heart of the country beats. Its rhythm is dictated by its slow and winding roads, where life unfolds in a vibrant spectacle. Approaching by sea thus opens up the most wonderful perspective, allowing you to embrace this formidable energy, while enjoying the comfort and calm of sailing from island to island.

“The adventure begins in Vigan, the oldest Spanish colonial city in Asia, whose architecture reflects the intersection of Filipino, Chinese, European and Mexican cultures. It can be explored by simply strolling around or in a horse-drawn carriage. This is followed by a plunge into the silence of Corregidor, a former sentinel of Manila Bay where vegetation has reclaimed the remnants of the Second World War. And finally, Manila reveals its dizzying ‘explosion of life’!

“After this journey through history, it’s time for raw nature. In Coron, turquoise lagoons nestle between dramatic karst cliffs. It is an exceptional snorkelling spot with extraordinary marine life! Further south, on the island of Palawan, a completely different adventure leads guests to the marvellous underground river of Puerto Princesa. It is accessed after navigating by bangka, the traditional double-outrigger canoes, and journeying through the forest.

“The journey home leaves you with an enduring feeling. The sense of having met a community of rare dignity and kindness. A true life lesson. A warmth of heart which, beyond the beauty of the landscapes, transforms this voyage into an unforgettable experience.”

Staircase to the Moon

The phenomenon occurs between March and November in Australia's Roebuck Bay. At low tide, on nights of the full moon, mysterious floating steps appear in the sky and beckon viewers toward the celestial sphere. The optical illusion is caused by moonlight reflecting off the mudflats rippled by the waves.

Rare birds of Indonesia

The archipelago is home to the world's largest number of endemic bird species.

The 528 recorded species include Rothschild's Mynah with blue-rimmed eyes standing alongside the curious Wallace's scrubfowl, while the Pink-headed Fruit Dove competes in colours with the Yellow-eared Barbet and the Lilac Kingfisher.

Itinerary: Tropical Indonesian odyssey, p. 83

Sabang's Hidden Treasure

On the island of Palawan flows an extraordinary underground river, shaped by the tides. Inside the cave, erosion has created a spectacular karst landscape where stalactites and stalagmites appear to pose under the watchful eyes of crab-eating macaques, monitor lizards, fruit bats and pipistrelles.

Tahiti's Last Queen

Daughter of an English Jewish merchant and a Polynesian princess, Joanna Marau Taaroa Te Pau married the future King Pōmare V at the age of 15. After their divorce in 1888, the influential Marau continued to receive visiting artists such as Henry Adams, Paul Gauguin and Robert Louis Stevenson into her wooden home in Papeete. The transcription of her memoirs sheds light on both the traditions of the island and the history of the 'land of the gods'.

Journeys of discovery

PONANT EXPLORATIONS and Smithsonian Journeys, the travel program of the Smithsonian Institution, have formed a unique alliance to offer themed sailings featuring experiences that embrace local cultures and dive deeper into a destination's history, cuisine, language, environment and wildlife.

In addition to the usual elements of the PONANT experience, these voyages include transfers to and from the ship, talks and discussions aboard ship by world class experts, and a shore excursion or activity in each port of call that immerses guests in the sights, sounds, tastes and smells of each destination, and helps provide a deeper understanding of the places we explore.

Discover all the departures of the Summer 2027 season, in alliance with Smithsonian Journeys.

OCEAN VOYAGES | LE BORÉAL: Buenos Aires • Las Palmas: 22/03/2027 ⁽¹³⁾

(1) Canada: entry by sea: an Electronic Travel Authorisation (eTA) is not required on this cruise for European nationals. For foreign nationals, certain nationalities require a visa or eTA to enter Canada, regardless of the means of transport used – plane, car, bus, train, cruise ship. For more information, please visit: <https://www.canada.ca/en/immigration-refugees-citizenship/services/visit-canada/entry-requirements-country.html>

Depending on the itinerary booked, flights to and from Saint Pierre and Miquelon transit via Canada, so an eTA is compulsory.

(2) Iceland: as of 1st January, 2024, Iceland has reintroduced the tourist tax, newly extended to cruise passengers in response to the social and environmental impact of tourism. This new tax, amounting to ISK 400 per guest and per day spent on Icelandic territory, will be charged on board at the end of the cruise and paid to the port authorities.

U.S. citizens may enter Iceland without a visa for up to 90 days for tourist purposes.

(3) Kayaking in polar region: for persons under 18, we will require a sworn statement from the parents or legal guardians that they are able to swim. A parent or legal guardian must be present at the time of the activity.

(4) United States: should your flight transit via the USA, depending on your nationality, an ESTA or visa may be required. Please contact USA consulate website for details. Please note that if you have travelled or lived in countries such as Cuba (on or after 12th January 2021), Iran, Iraq, Sudan, Yemen, Somalia, Libya, Syria or North Korea, the US Department of Homeland Security can deny your ESTA. In this event, you must apply to an embassy for a category B1/B2 visa to travel to the United States. The visa processing time is several months. If you already have an ESTA (valid for 2 years), we ask you to check its status up until the day of departure on the dedicated website.

(5) Greenland: visa required for certain countries. See the list at <https://nyidanmark.dk/en-GB/>.

(6) United Kingdom: an Electronic Travel Authorisation (ETA) is mandatory for all visa-exempt travelers wishing to enter the United Kingdom. The ETA application must be made before departure (cost £16) on the following website: <https://apply-for-an-eta.homeoffice.gov.uk/apply/electronic-travel-authorisation/how-to-apply>, or on the UK ETA mobile app. For Monegasque nationals and other nationalities, please consult the following website: <https://www.gov.uk/guidance/apply-for-an-electronic-travel-authorisation-eta>. For the other countries visited during the cruise, please check the restrictions prior to departure depending on your nationality.

(7) Algeria: when the call takes place in the middle of the cruise, a group visa is issued and charged onboard (fees: one- or two-day visa: 5,000 DZD; three days or more: 10,000 DZD) for all passengers participating in one of the excursions offered by PONANT EXPLORATIONS. All excursions during this call must be pre-booked prior to departure (approximately two months in advance). The list of registered passengers will be sent to the local authorities so the visas can be prepared in advance. No other type of visa will be considered valid. Passengers not joining an excursion will not be authorised to disembark. Independent or private tours are not permitted by the local authorities. Passengers already in possession of an individual consular visa will still be subject to the group visa process.

(8) Croatia: before your departure, fill out a document available here: <https://entercroatia.mup.hr/>. You will then receive an 'announcement certificate' with a number: please print it and present it on arrival at Dubrovnik airport.

A visa can also be obtained on arrival at the airport (valid for 30 days, single entry); however, waiting times can be very long.

Since September 1st, 2025, the digital All Indonesia form, which includes both customs and health declarations, has been implemented and is mandatory at all entry points in Indonesia. It can be completed online up to 72 hours before arrival in Indonesia: <https://allindonesia.imigrasi.go.id/arrival-card-submission/personal-information>

A tourist tax of 150,000 IDR (approximately €9.50) must be paid upon each entry into Bali (LoveBali). Tourists arriving in Bali by air will pay the tax at the airport counter. For those joining or disembarking the ship at the Port of Benoa, the port agent will handle all payments directly with the local tourism office upon the ship's arrival.

(11) Australia: an Electronic Travel Authority (ETA) must be obtained before your arrival in Australia. For more information, please visit <https://immi.homeaffairs.gov.au/visas/getting-a-visa/visa-finder/visit>. Carriers should be aware that there will not be any physical evidence in your passport. IMPORTANT INFORMATION

To guarantee your entry into one or several countries, you must ensure that you comply with the formalities and health requirements specific to each destination. In just a few clicks on our online search engine, find all the formalities you must complete prior to your departure (visas, entry authorisations for each country, vaccinations, etc.): <https://en.ponant.com/formalities>.

The international situation can change rapidly, so be sure to check this information regularly prior to your departure. However, please note that we always recommend our guests contact the relevant national immigration and customs and border control authorities directly to find out what rules apply to their specific situation. PONANT EXPLORATIONS is not responsible for any decisions made by guests based on the information provided by the online search engine.

Visas: before departure, you are advised to check that your visa's validity period matches the duration and dates of the stay requested, or you may encounter some unpleasant consequences if there is any non-compliance with the authorised duration of stay.

We invite you to read our boarding conditions and passenger travel abilities: <https://l.ponant.com/ErQG>. Any new reservation implies the acceptance of these conditions.

List of items prohibited on board: find the full list here: https://l.ponant.com/CGV_EN. Should you have one of these products or objects in your possession, they will be confiscated immediately and will not be transported on the ship. When an item transported aboard is considered illegal, the relevant authorities will be notified systematically.

Health: if you are undergoing medical treatment, do not forget your prescription. You are advised to contact a healthcare professional well in advance of your departure for any medical advice about your trip.

POLAR EXPEDITION CRUISE

Complimentary polar parka: for all cruises marked with the logo 'Parka Gift', a PONANT EXPLORATIONS polar water-resistant parka is offered (adult sizes only; in case of consecutive cruises, only one parka per person).

Complimentary boots hire: boot rental will be offered onboard (for adults only) on expedition cruises where the logo 'Boots on loan' appears.

Ports of call, visited sites, outings and landings will depend on weather conditions, position of ice, winds and the state of the sea. These can force a change of plans at any time. The Captain and the Expedition Leader may at any time cancel or stop any activity, or even modify the itinerary. The final itinerary will be confirmed by the Captain, who will take into account the touristic quality of the sites and above all, the safety of the passengers.

Their decision will be based on advice from experts and authorities.

Travelling to polar/isolated regions is an exhilarating experience in remote areas: please remember that you are far from modern hospitals with full medical facilities, thus evacuation is extremely expensive. Without adequate medical coverage, all expenses will have to be immediately paid with your personal funds. We urge you to subscribe to full coverage insurance, choose your insurance company very carefully, be extremely vigilant and ensure your insurance is fully comprehensive, especially if you are insured by your credit card. PONANT EXPLORATIONS offers an insurance contract with extensive guarantees, please contact us for more information.
